

PHD SCHOLARSHIP –ALFRED DEAKIN INSTITUTE

Alfred Deakin Institute for Citizenship and Globalisation

Deakin University is looking for an outstanding scholar for a full time PhD scholarship to work in Alfred Deakin Institute for Citizenship and Globalisation.

Aim of the Project

Our research agenda is concerned with the complex and often contradictory meanings of citizenship, social inclusion and globalisation at the local, national and transnational levels. In this way the differing manifestations of migration; tensions of transnational governance; viability of the nation-state; impact of globalising processes on concepts and experiences of identity, belonging, heritage and citizenship; lived politics of inclusion and exclusion; tensions in the human rights' discourse; critical importance of cultural heritage; and related questions of justice and development are explored systematically and holistically.

Doctoral research will be aligned with one or more of the following key research areas:

- Citizenship
- Diversity & Identity
- Globalisation
- Governance & political studies
- Heritage & museums;
- Indigeneity
- Multiculturalism & interculturalism
- Racism and Anti-Racism
- Studies of Asia and/or the Middle East

Value and benefits

A stipend of $26,288 per annum tax exempt for 3 years.

Eligibility criteria

- Applicants must meet Deakin's PhD entry requirements, be enrolling full-time and hold an Honours degree (First Class) or a Master's degree with a substantial research component in a related field. Please refer to the entry pathways to higher degrees by research for further information.
- Applications are open to Australian/New Zealand citizens and Australian permanent residents.

How to apply

Please refer to the Apply for a research degree webpage for application information.

Further information

If you wish to discuss your research interests and project proposal before applying, please contact Cayla Edwards via email or phone +61 3 924 46658.