

About Deakin's operations

A repository of information about the University's operations is provided below, addressing requirements in the Higher Education Standards Framework.

Name	Registered and trading name: Deakin University ABN: 56 721 584 203
Contact details	The University's contact details are available on the Contact page. This includes information about how to make enquiries and provide feedback.
Regulatory status	The University is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • registered on the National Register maintained by the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency as a provider authorised to self-accredit its courses • authorised to provide courses to international students studying on an Australian student visa, CRICOS Provider Code: 00113B.
Establishing instrument	Deakin University Act 2009
Governing body and senior executive	The University's governing body is the University Council . The University's primary management decision-making body is the University Executive .
Annual reports	The University's current and previous annual reports are published on the website . They include the University's audited annual financial statements.
Student enrolments	'Deakin at a glance', published on the University's website , includes summary information about total student enrolments.
Organisational structure	The University's organisational chart includes Executive portfolios and faculties, schools and institutes.
Locations where higher education is offered	The University offers higher education courses at five campuses (including four physical campuses in Victoria and our online Cloud Campus) and various learning centres . Overseas locations Courses offered at various offshore locations are listed below under 'Third party arrangements'
Student resources and services	Check the following links for information about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • orientation and getting started • student support services • University Library Comprehensive course-specific learning resources are provided to students through the University's learning management system.
Courses	Information about all courses offered by the University is available in the University Handbook .

Third party arrangements

The University has local and overseas arrangements with other parties to deliver courses and conduct research training.

Information about other partnerships is available in the annual reports.