1. The Council may from time to time by regulation pursuant to this Statute establish Faculties for the better organisation and administration of the academic affairs of the University.

2. Faculties may be organised into Schools.

3. Centres may be established in the Faculties.

4. Each Faculty shall:

   (a) have such powers and duties as are prescribed in statutes or regulations;

   (b) consist of such persons as are declared to be members of the Faculty by regulation made pursuant to this Statute;

   (c) carry out course development, research, research training, teaching and assessment in approved units and courses with which the Faculty is concerned, together with those units and courses in other Faculties for which co-operative arrangements are made; and

   (d) establish a Faculty Board.

5. Council may make, amend or revoke regulations prescribing or providing for any matter for which it is necessary or expedient to prescribe or provide for the purposes of this Statute.

6. Regulations made under this Statute will come into effect when promulgated by being displayed on the University’s official notice board.

Approved by the Minister for Skills and Workforce Participation on 29 July 2009.
