

This Regulation is made pursuant to Statute 6.1 – University Property, Facilities, Fees and Charges.

1. There shall be established in the University a library called the Deakin University Library.
2. The Library shall comprise the area and precincts of buildings or parts of buildings on the several campuses of the University which contain Library Material. "Library Material" includes material in any format provided for use or loan by the Library.
3. The Library shall be under the control and supervision of the University Librarian who shall be responsible for the proper care and safekeeping of library information resources and for the provision of library services.
4. The University Librarian:
 - (a) may, by notice published on the University website or by any other written means:
 - (i) establish terms of use for the library;
 - (ii) specify the persons or classes of persons who are entitled to use the Deakin University Library and any Library Materials;
 - (b) may specify the circumstances and period in which he or she may restrict or prohibit a person from using the Deakin University Library and any Library Materials; and
 - (c) shall be responsible for administering the policies and procedures governing the conditions of use of the Library.
5. The University Librarian may delegate authority to such person or persons to administer the policies and procedures governing the conditions of use of the library, as he or she deems appropriate.
6. Library users:
 - (a) may at any time be required by the University Librarian to produce evidence of their identity; and
 - (b) must comply with all relevant notices published by the University Librarian as well as all the relevant legislation and University statutes, regulations, policies and procedures.

Approved by Council on 12 June 2008 and includes all amendments to 21 November 2014.
