NEWS FROM KITJARRA

Last month we had our first pizza movie night by all accounts it was a fun night.

Don’t forget this month DUSA is providing a free BBQ lunch on the 20th in the IKE tea room!

Kitjarra staff wish all the students on placement this month the best of luck.

WHAT’S NEWS AT IKE?

WE HAVE NEW STAFF!

Ridely Livesey

Hi my name is Ridley and I’m the new IT Support Trainee here at IKE.

I enjoy all sports especially football, I like fishing, hanging out with friends, a good movie, sunny weather and all music.

My role here is to assist Thomas with student’s IT needs, if you have any questions that you would like to ask feel free to ask, I am located at the front desk and will be more than happy to assist.

Emmalina McLachlan

Hi I’m Emmalina, I’m the new Trainee Receptionist here at the Institute.

I’ve grown up in Geelong, I have 3 sisters and I am the 2nd oldest. I graduated from Newcomb Secondary College, year 12 in 2012. Before coming to IKE I was working at Narana Aboriginal Cultural Centre in the Café. Business Administration was something I have always wanted to do but never got the chance until now. If you need any assistance I am located in reception, feel free to come say hi.
Congratulations to the 2015 Deadly Funny winner Nina Kirby!

The Deadly Funny National Final & Showcase (held at the Forum Theatre on Saturday 18 April) was hosted by Andy Saunders and Judith Lucy, with special guests Kevin Kropinyeri, Mia Stanford, Matt Ford, Shiralee Hood, Djuki Mala and Archie Roach.

The National Final and Showcase featured amazing performances from all the Deadly National Finalists - Dane Simpson (NSW), Joshua Warrior (SA), Karen Edwards (QLD), Karla Harla Hart (WA) and Nina Kirby (VIC).

Big congratulations on the night also went to Karen Edwards- the recipient of the Institute Of Koorie Education Deadly Funny mentorship.

Now in its 9th year Deadly Funny is the only dedicated Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander comedy program for Australia’s traditional owners.

Cheeky and loud, black and proud this program is all about unearthing and recognizing bright and bold new talent from all over the country and the Institute of Koorie Education are proud to support such a fantastic event!
Congratulations to Karen Edwards

The first ever recipient of the Institute of Koorie Education Deadly Funny Mentorship Award!

We are proud to sponsor the first annual Institute of Koorie Education Deadly Funny Mentorship award to the hilarious Karen Edwards.

Each year the mentorship award provides an emerging Deadly Funny comedian with the opportunity to access, learn from and meet with a professional artist to develop individual material and provide advice and support on career opportunities.

With her quick wit and cheeky innuendo Karen is a an extremely deserving recipient of the award. All of us at IKE would like to wish Karen all the very best for the future. With such a natural and raw talent she is sure to do great things.

IKE Choir
If anyone is interested in participating in an IKE choir please contact Janis Koolmatrie. Janis is an MA (Research) student who can be found in the upstairs computer Lab or phone 0488115379.

NEXT EDITION: May ISSUE

Did you know, next year in 2016 will be the 30th Anniversary of the Institute of Koorie Education?

We will be celebrating by looking at the history and milestones with staff and students. If any of your relatives have graduated from IKE, let them know we are looking for their stories. They can be emailed to: K.mcgough@deakin.edu.au

If you have a story you think should be in BIHAR we want to hear from you! Contact Kaley McGough at k.mcgough@deakin.edu.au or (03) 5227 2445
