Are you a clinician who aspires to leadership in healthcare? Do you want to learn more about making a difference in Australia's healthcare system?

Deakin's Clinical Leadership Residential Masterclass 2 is being held on 2nd May 2016 at the Waurnd Ponds Estate at Deakin's Waurnd Ponds Campus (Geelong).

'Management is doing things right; leadership is doing the right things.'
– Peter Drucker

Previous masterclass attendees have said:

"Teaching input / calibre of the contributing leaders was exceptional"

"Privilege to have access to these inspiring individuals"

"Quality! Coming into the week my expectations were to receive an overview of the healthcare system. It was definitely exceeded."

This residential program (HME703 Clinical Leadership 3: Clinicians Consumers and Their System) is a core unit of Deakin's Master of Clinical Leadership program. The Master's program is designed for clinicians who want to make a difference in healthcare through actively leading change. It is also available as a single unit for those wishing to undertake a formal Master's level unit, or as a conference for those who simply wish to undertake individual professional development without formally enrolling in the unit. Conference attendees will not be eligible for subsequent recognition of prior learning (RPL).

This Masterclass will provide those who attend with an opportunity to hear from leaders in the Australian healthcare system and to learn about current and future challenges in Australian healthcare.

Program highlights include discussion about:

- The importance of the patient/consumer in our healthcare system
- The challenge of clinical engagement in safety and quality
- Leadership of self
- Leadership within the organisational setting

Attendees will be encouraged to develop their thinking about their own leadership, whilst learning practical leadership skills from each other and from an outstanding faculty. The Masterclass will also provide an opportunity to develop and extend professional and personal networks.

Cost

The all-expenses cost of the residential is $5,500 or early-bird cost $5,300 if you enrol in the unit by 8th April, 2016. This includes meals and accommodation at the Waurnd Ponds Estate.
