YOU CAN HAVE A SINGAPORE AND MALAYSIAN STUDY EXPERIENCE
Faculty of Health

Undergraduate and postgraduate students in food and nutrition, human nutrition and health sciences (studying Food Studies and/or Nutrition) have the opportunity to be part of a study tour to Singapore and Malaysia:

- You will be in Singapore and Malaysia from 7 November to 21 November 2015
- You will be enrolled in a T3 unit and gain credit towards your degree on successful completion of the unit
- You will be taught in English with an interpreter supplied at the host organisation sites
- You will be provided with significant insight into health, nutrition, food production, policies and disease prevention
- You will be introduced to Asian culture through a range of activities involving language, history, art, dance and music as well as social engagements with the community, gaining hands on experience of the challenges faced by the community
- You will gain an international network and potential career opportunities.
