

Victoria India Doctoral Scholarships

Prestigious doctoral scholarships are available to scholars from India who enrol for their PhD in universities in Victoria, Australia, to start in 2013.

Value of Scholarships

Ten scholarships are available:

- AUD$90,000 awarded to each candidate over duration of their doctoral studies
- Full waiver of tuition fees

Take the opportunity to work with top researchers and supervisors, use cutting-edge research infrastructure and facilities, and enjoy a welcoming lifestyle in a cosmopolitan community.

You can apply for your PhD at:

- Australian Catholic University
- Deakin University
- La Trobe University
- Monash University
- RMIT University
- Swinburne University
- The University of Melbourne
- University of Ballarat
- Victoria University

When to apply for your PhD

Detailed guidelines will be available at www.studymelbourne.vic.gov.au by 1 August 2012.

Applications will open on 30 August 2012
Applications will close on 31 October 2012

Who can apply

To be eligible for the Victoria India Doctoral Scholarships, you must be:

1. A citizen of the Republic of India
2. Accepted into a doctoral programme at a participating Victorian university
3. Intending to complete the majority of your doctoral work in Victoria
4. Not holding a qualification regarded to be equivalent to an Australian research doctorate
5. Willing to be an ambassador for the Victoria India Doctoral Scholarships

Victoria – a place of opportunity

Each of Victoria's nine universities are eminent in their field and collectively Victoria can offer excellent doctoral opportunities across science, engineering, biomedicine, the social sciences and humanities, business studies, education and the arts.

Victoria's education institutions have mutually beneficial, collaborative research links with Indian institutions and industry, and the Victorian India Doctorate Scholarships will continue to build on these links.

Melbourne is the capital city of Victoria, Australia's most compact mainland state. You can choose to study and live in Melbourne, or in a regional city around Victoria.

Victoria is home to almost 5 million people and built on the cultures of 200 countries. Sharing everything from food and music to sport and technology, Melbourne is one of the world's great international cities.

Melbourne is consistently ranked among the most liveable cities in the world, offering world-class educational institutions, a temperate climate, amazing food, arts and sporting events, a robust economy and a welcoming and supportive community.

Our regional cities are all vibrant, independent and compact communities. They have strong industries, extensive infrastructure and are in easy reach of Melbourne.

"I really like Melbourne. It's a big enough city without being too overwhelming and I like its laidback character."

Nandita Vijayakumar
Current PhD student in Neuropsychology in Melbourne, Victoria

More information

- 10 PhD Scholarships available, to start 2013
- AUD$90,000 scholarship
- Full tuition fee waived

www.studymelbourne.vic.gov.au/scholarships
www.studymelbourne.vic.gov.au/hindi/scholarships

The Australia India Institute is managing the Victoria India Doctorate Scholarships with funding from the Victorian Government.