Bio:

Clarissa Rayward is a specialist family lawyer, speaker and writer of the blog 'The Happy Family Lawyer'. Over 13 years of experience Clarissa has helped over 2,000 Australian families through their divorce. This wealth of experience has reinforced her belief that traditional legal processes do little to assist separating families find a positive future after divorce. It takes more than lawyers and Courts to help families through divorce and separation in a way that ensures a positive end to a marriage. For this reason, in 2008 Clarissa established Brisbane Family Law Centre, a multidisciplinary practice where lawyers work alongside counsellors and financial planners to ensure that clients receive the holistic support they need at such a challenging time. Clarissa is determined to change the way Australian families experience divorce and separation for the better.
