

Presentations by Deakin University staff: WCPH 2017

Monday 3 April

Hanny Calache	Quality health economics research for healthy public policy development
Victoria Brown	Transport behaviours and obesity – can interventions to improve rates of walking and cycling play a role in obesity prevention?
Melissa Graham	The health inequities of sexual and reproductive health
Kevin McNamara	Integrated community pharmacy screening to support general practice prevention goals
Ann Taket	Evaluating the short-term impact of a theatre-based program for bystander violence prevention
Brydie Clarke	Mapping the role of policy in Healthy Together Victoria (HTV): practice-based evidence of a systems-thinking approach to obesity prevention initiative
Melanie Hawkins	Poster presentation: Development And Validation Of The Conversational Health Literacy Assessment Tool (CHAT)
Richard Osborne	Workshop: Closing the gap on the SDGs: the role of health literacy needs analysis and interventions in reaching hard-to-reach and unreached groups

Tuesday 4 April

Kathryn Backholer	A framework for understanding the impact of population-wide health policies on inequalities in health across socioeconomic and sociodemographic groups.
Miranda Blake	Estimating the impact of sugar-sweetened beverage price increases on beverage purchasing behaviour by socioeconomic position.
Roy Batterham	Achieving equity in measurement: ensuring measurement equivalence across social levels and disabilities in the development of the Information and Support for Health Actions Questionnaire (ISHAQ).
Alison Beauchamp	Cancer Screening Participation and Multidimensional Health Literacy in a Large Rural Area
Rebecca Patrick and Claire Henderson-Wilson	Workshop: Nature is Good medicine: recognising the contributions of the natural environment to health, wellbeing and quality of life.
Melissa Graham	Women without children: stigma, stereotyping and social exclusion

Wednesday 5 April

‘Ending the rise in obesity in a generation: the case for primordial prevention’

A world leadership dialogue for the World Congress in Public Health

4-6pm Includes:

Anna Peeters	Levering to improve population nutrition
Steve Allender	Dealing with complexity at scale
Marj Moodie	Who pays for prevention?
Lisa Gold	Economic evaluation of probiotics for neurodevelopment in very pre-term infants: proprems, neuro randomised controlled trial
Catherine Bennett	Community-onset Staphylococcus Aureus infections and household colonisation patterns in Australia: the COSAHC study
Alexandra Chung	Discretionary food and beverages and the relationship between socioeconomic obesity and Australian children.
Tara Boelsen-Robinson	Health and sales impact of going soft-drink free in YMCA Victorian Aquatic and Recreation Centres.
Gary Sacks	Benchmarking current government actions to improve the healthiness of food environments in Australia
Kathryn Backholer	The Relative Price Of Healthy And Unhealthy Foods in Australian School Canteens
Rebecca Jessup	Creating Strategies to improve health outcomes and access for hospital patients in a disadvantaged area of Melbourne, Australia; an Ophelia co-creation project
Rebecca Jessup	Health Literacy of recently hospitalised patients: a cross-sectional survey using the HLQ.
Roy Batterham	Workshop: Community Approaches to Health Literacy
Annie Cooper	Exploring health literacy barriers to breast screening in Arabic and Italian speaking women from North West Melbourne.
Crystal McPhee	Barriers to cancer diagnosis and treatment in a large rural area of Victoria, Australia.

Rhonda Garad	Health Literacy: an opportunity for equity in migrant groups.
Siew Lim	Grampians Fruit and Veg - Health Literacy and Fruit and Vegetable Intakes in large rural area in Victoria Australia.
Carol Wildey	Using the Ophelia process to improve after-hours primary care services.
Hannah Pitt	'They show you what to bet on'. The role of marketing in the normalisation of gambling for children in Australia
Samantha Thomas	A public health framework to map and monitor gambling industry tactics and Which mechanisms are the most influential in the normalisation of gambling? A qualitative study of international gambling experts.
Amy Bestman	The normalisation of gambling environments in regional New South Wales: A qualitative study with family groups
Tony LaMontagne	The effects of social and economic participation on the mental health of people with disabilities
Helen Miller	The role of consumer voices in public health initiatives: a case study of gambling
Jennifer David	A comparative content analysis of media reporting of sports wagering in Australia: lessons for public health advocacy initiatives

Thursday 6 April

Workshop	Involving people from vulnerable communities in health development: designing effective strategies for participation (co-facilitated by Ann Taket)
Victoria Brown	What have we learnt from early prevention of childhood obesity trials?
Victoria Brown (Co-presenting)	The economics of early childhood obesity
Jaithri Ananthapavan	Priority setting policies to address the environmental drivers of obesity
Amy Bestman	Children's knowledge of gambling products in community Clubs in Australia
Fiona McKay	Street vending in India; food security, vulnerability, and resilience
Ann Taket	The evaluation of a brief relationship education program for new first time parents
Ann Taket (Co-facilitating)	Workshop Involving people from vulnerable communities in health development: designing effective strategies for participation
Elizabeth Vella	Keeping calm and carrying on: outcomes from a mindfulness meditation program promoting workplace health

Friday 7 April

GLOBE Field Trip Field Trip 2: Deakin University

Our Global Obesity Team will be hosting delegates of the congress on a field trip to Deakin University.

