'Management is doing things right; leadership is doing the right things.'
– Peter Drucker

This residential program (HME701 Clinical Leadership 1: System and Strategy) is a core unit of Deakin's Master of Clinical Leadership program. The Master's program is designed for clinicians who want to make a difference in healthcare through actively leading change. It is also available as a single unit for those wishing to undertake a formal Master's level unit, or as a conference for those who simply wish to undertake individual professional development without formally enrolling in the unit. Conference attendees will not be eligible for subsequent recognition of prior learning (RPL).

This Masterclass will provide those who attend with an opportunity to hear from leaders in the Australian healthcare system and to learn about current and future challenges in Australian healthcare.

Program highlights include discussion about:

- The importance of the health policy
- The challenge of clinical engagement
- Clinical professionalism
- Leadership within the health system

Attendees will be encouraged to develop their thinking about their own leadership, whilst learning practical leadership skills from each other and from an outstanding faculty. The Masterclass will also provide an opportunity to develop and extend professional and personal networks.

Cost

The cost of the residential is $4,000 or early-bird cost $3,800 if you enrol in the unit by 1st April, 2016. Accommodation is not included.
