The Institute of Koorie Education offers world class higher education, research opportunities and a responsive cultural experience for Indigenous students. Community-based learning allows you to combine your family and community obligations with study assisting you to achieve your educational and career aspirations alongside your lifestyle commitments and goals.

Discover a world of opportunity at the Institute of Koorie Education.

Enrol now at deakin.edu.au/ike