WHY DEAKIN?

Choose where you study

You can study arts, humanities and social sciences in Geelong, Melbourne, Warrnambool or online via Deakin's Cloud Campus. Deakin offers courses and units both fully and partly online, allowing you to balance life's other priorities. Cloud learning offers a convenient and engaging learning experience, using the latest digital tools.

World-class subjects

Politics and international studies at Deakin are ranked in the top 10 per cent in the world, according to the prestigious QS World University Rankings (2015). The QS World University Rankings are an annual university ranking, and are one of the most influential and widely observed international university rankings.

A worldly education

Deakin offers various opportunities to study overseas, including exchange, study abroad, study tours and international volunteering opportunities.

Deakin arts, humanities and social sciences students have the opportunity to study in a wide range of countries, including Japan, India, Israel and Palestinian territories, Malaysia, Papua New Guinea and the United States. You could find yourself in the US learning about America's role in the international political system and the role of UN, IMF and World Bank, or in Tibet experiencing an intensive introduction to Buddhist philosophy and hermeneutics. The benefits of an international study experience are limitless.

When you travel, you don't just learn about the world, you learn about yourself.

THE BIG PICTURE

When we talk about a 'worldly' education, we're talking about the kind of person Deakin University will help you become. Someone who looks at the bigger picture, sees all sides of the story and recognises other points of view. At Deakin, we believe education is a journey, not just a piece of paper.

WHY DEAKIN?

Gain industry experience

Work experience plays a critical role in developing your employability – students who undertake placements and internships are highly sought-after by employers. Our arts, humanities and social sciences students can access work experience and networking opportunities while they study.

Learn from experts

Our teaching staff are passionate professionals, recognised as leaders and innovators in their fields. They give our students a relevant, stimulating learning experience that prepares them for life and careers in a rapidly changing world.

Career-focused courses

Industry representatives sit on advisory boards to ensure our courses are developed and reviewed with industry and professional input, providing excellent career outcomes. Our School of Humanities and Social Sciences has strong partnerships with several high profile organisations, such as Save the Children, and other NGOs. A recent study by the Graduate Careers Council of Australia noted that 'within four months of completing arts/humanities and related courses, more than 75 per cent of graduates are in full-time employment and a further 20 per cent are undertaking further study'.

Get extensive hands-on, industry experience and gain valuable international experiences, preparing you for a career in a wide range of industries.

Cloud learning offers a convenient, personalised and engaging learning experience, using the latest digital tools.

Deakin now offers an even greater breadth of study areas as part of our Bachelor of Arts degree. Choose from over 30 study areas to create a unique degree that matches your interests and career aspirations.

HAPPINESS LEADS TO SUCCESS

For six consecutive years, Deakin has achieved the highest level of overall student satisfaction amongst Victorian universities. These great results are based on 2010–2015 Australian Graduate Survey responses to 'Overall Satisfaction' amongst bachelor's degree graduates.

'I chose Deakin because it had a strong set of international relations and criminology subjects. There are also so many opportunities for practical experiences – internships, study abroad programs and numerous competitions.'

Study a language

At Deakin we teach the world's most strategically important languages – Arabic, Chinese, Indonesian and Spanish – with exciting overseas language study tour opportunities available as part of your degree. Learning a language is not only fun – it gives you an insight into different cultures, develops your adaptability and communication skills, as well as making you more employable.

There are a variety of benefits to learning a second language:

- Boost your global career aspirations, develop language and cultural understanding.
- Get a unique edge in a competitive job market.
- Build multitasking and decision-making skills.
- Improves your memory.
- Refine your first language and communication skills in general.
- Develop your brain function.
- Combine work, study and travel via language studies.
- Sets you up to live and work in another culture.

DID YOU KNOW?

Chinese is the most spoken language in the world and Spanish is the second most spoken language in the world – two key languages taught at Deakin.

Geelong Warrn Ponds Campus

'We offer students the possibility of learning a language in a dynamic and unique environment. Classes and seminars are fun, interactive and based on a communicative approach. We focus on important grammatical structures, as well as key vocabulary to effectively navigate the contemporary world. Spanish studies at Deakin, however, goes beyond language acquisition, with students learning about the countries, histories, cultures, literatures and peoples of the Spanish speaking world.'

WHAT CAN I STUDY?

Anthropology B WP C

Anthropology is the study of humanity in the broadest sense.

Anthropology at Deakin focuses on the ways human society creates its communities in diverse cultural settings. Studies in anthropology prepare you to understand and work with people in diverse and international settings. Topics studied include poverty and development, crime and violence, belief systems, health and illness and human ecology.

You may find employment in community relations, the education sector, government departments, the health industry, media corporations, research consultancies and welfare organisations.

Arabic B WP C

Australia's trade with the Middle East has more than doubled in the past decade, making it an increasingly important region with broad strategic, economic, religious and cultural influence. Studies in Arabic help you develop communication skills in modern standard Arabic, with language fluency further enhanced through an understanding of Middle Eastern history, culture and society. In-country language programs are available to students undertaking a major sequence in Arabic.

Graduates can expect to gain employment in a wide range of organisations, including the education sector, federal defence agencies, government departments, immigration departments/consultancies, intelligence agencies, major corporations, management consultancies, media organisations, multicultural associations, research and translation services.

Australian studies B WP WB C

Australian Studies is a cross-disciplinary examination of Australia in its local and global contexts. In this study area students engage with Australia's history and geography, along with the politics, culture and society that makes us who we are. Australian Studies develops in-depth knowledge of Australia, including its colonisation, land uses, migration patterns, popular culture, engagements with Asia, as well as its Indigenous pasts and present. Students also develop critical skills in communication, research and in analytical, critical and abstract thinking.

Career opportunities exist in the education sector, government agencies, cultural institutions, media organisations, the public service and the marketing and tourism industries.

Children's literature B WP C

Deakin is a world leader in children's and young people's literature and has developed a full major in the Bachelor of Arts in this growing field. Discover major trends in children's texts across a range of media, and how stories for young people reflect and challenge the values of their time. This study area caters to students who are interested in children's literature as a prominent domain of literary production and is of particular relevance to those who intend to work with children and young people as primary or secondary teachers and librarians, and those who wish to produce texts for young people.

International study experiences allow you to see the world from a different perspective.

Chinese B WP

Mandarin Chinese is one of the world's most important languages. It is the official language of the People's Republic of China, Taiwan and Singapore and is widely used in community groups throughout South-East Asia, Hong Kong, North America and Australia. It is one of the five official languages of the United Nations. Develop your communication skills in Chinese, with language fluency further enhanced through an understanding of Chinese culture, history and society. In-country language programs are available to students undertaking a major sequence in Chinese, giving you the opportunity to travel overseas and try out your language skills with native speakers.

Careers in this field include work in the communications industry, community and government organisations, community health organisations, education sector, ethnic affairs associations, foreign affairs departments, multicultural organisations, tourism associations and translation services.

Criminology B WP C

Criminology provides students with a theoretical and practical understanding of crime, including causes of crime and different techniques used to control crime, within the broader context of the criminal justice system. Criminology aims to develop specific knowledge in various crime types, including street crime, crimes in the home, serious and organised crime, transnational crime and terrorism, and key topic areas such as victims of crime, media representations of crime, surveillance and privacy, policing and security; and theoretical and practical skills in understanding and responding to crime problems.

Promising career opportunities await in both the public and private sector, state and federal police, intelligence agencies and a range of law enforcement and anti-corruption and crime prevention agencies at federal, state and local government, correctional services, community services and private security industries.

Gender studies B WP C

Gender is one of few social forces that impacts everything we do. It is a primary vehicle for self-exploration. However, in many countries, gender remains at the plight of injustice, inequality and exploitation. Deakin's gender studies minor allows students to understand the complexities of gender and gender-related issues, but also to delve into the history of gender and various cultural perspectives.

Graduates are multi-skilled, flexible individuals with skills in critical thinking, political analysis, historical inquiry and knowledge in political and social philosophies. Students with experience in gender will be well-placed to pursue employment in law, social work, public and private sectors, human resources, education, media and communications.

WHAT CAN I STUDY?

Geography B

With a focus on applied skills - such as landscape analysis and critical problem-solving - Deakin's new geography minor introduces students to issues such as the study of people in place, the interaction of culture and nature, heritage and tourism, and urban planning.

Geography graduates may find work within local and state governments, but also within companies and communities. These may include agencies concerned with open space and parks management, urban planning and development, regional towns, transport, as well as international agencies concerned with development. There is also a rising demand for geography teachers within schools, as well as for experts with the discipline's synthetic and spatial perspective, leading to postgraduate study in urban and regional planning, project management, architecture, as well as international and community development.

See Bachelor of Arts, page 16.

History B WP C

You can explore the nature of the modern world – the forces and great events of the 19th and 20th centuries, as well as the ways historians continue to interpret them. Themes covered include war and peace; modernisation and social change; colonialism, nationalism and internationalism; gender in history; the Holocaust; and sport. Third-year students have the opportunity to undertake an internship and may apply for the US Congress Internship Program.

You may find employment opportunities in the education sector, local government, media corporations, museums/heritage organisations, research consultancies and tourism organisations.

Indonesian B WP C

Indonesian language students develop communication skills in Bahasa Indonesia, as well as an understanding of Indonesian culture, history and society. With more than 220 million speakers of Bahasa Indonesia, and Indonesia being Australia's closest Asian neighbour, the region is increasingly important to Australia economically, politically and culturally. In-country language programs are available to students undertaking a major sequence in Indonesian, giving you the opportunity to travel overseas and try out your language skills with native speakers.

Careers in this field include work in the communications industry, community and government organisations, community health organisations, the education sector, ethnic affairs associations, foreign affairs departments, multicultural organisations, tourism associations and translation services.

Literary studies B WP C

At Deakin, literature is the door to new understandings of cultures and histories. Our literary studies scholars have international profiles in philosophy, poetry, ecology and Australian literature, and will guide you in critical and creative journeys through great literature from the medieval era to today. There are also many opportunities for your own creative writing and critical analysis.

You may find employment opportunities in advertising agencies, the education sector, freelance writing, government departments, libraries, market research companies, public relations agencies and publishing companies.

See ...

Bachelor of Arts, page 16

Combined courses, page 22–27.

Media studies B WP X

This is an area of rapid and continuous technological, political, economic and social change. Much of the recent explosion in the stock of human knowledge is linked with developments in media. This area of study enables you to graduate with a unique 'multiskilled' qualification appropriate for many careers and job markets.

Graduates of media studies will be multiskilled media professionals ready to embrace innovative career pathways in digital and social media, the entertainment industry, marketing consultancies, PR firms, magazine publishers, film and television companies.

See Bachelor of Arts, page 16.

Middle East studies B WP C

Middle East studies provides a comprehensive understanding of the events and issues shaping the region, with an emphasis on both historical and contemporary issues relevant to the analysis of the Middle East as a regional system, as well as its place in the international system. Importance is placed on the changing role of the US in the Middle East since the end of the Cold War and its push to reshape the region's political landscape according to American national interests. Several of the endemic conflict situations that exist in the Middle East are examined, including the War on Terror; the invasion and occupation of Iraq; the Israel-Palestine impasse; the 2006 Israel-Lebanon crisis; Iran's nuclear ambitions; and the role of 'rogue states'.

Graduates can expect to gain employment in a wide range of organisations, including the education sector, federal defence agencies, government departments, immigration departments/consultancies, intelligence agencies, major corporations, management consultancies, media organisations, multicultural associations and research.

Sport and society B WP C

There has never been a better time to study sport, as opportunities to follow a career path in this field have never been greater. Sport is a dynamic growth area, which invites students to explore key issues surrounding sport's role – past and present – in the modern world in a structured and meaningful way.

Sport's prominent role in society can be traced back to the ancient Olympics in Greece over 2700 years ago. Today, sport enjoys ever-increasing popularity and influence. Sport has a profound impact on society from cultural, social, educational, political and economic perspectives.

Studies of religions B WP C

Religion continues to have an increasingly important role in media and popular culture. Religious beliefs in the world's population play a significant role in conflict, peace building, terrorism and international development. With increasing globalisation and more countries becoming more diverse and complex there is a growing need for experts in religion.

Graduates will be well placed in both government and non-governmental organisations, international businesses and the United Nations. This major is multidisciplinary and includes subjects with a focus on religion from sociology, philosophy, anthropology, history and literary studies.

See Bachelor of Arts, page 16.

Sustainability and society B

Sustainability is an increasingly important factor in private and public sectors that guides behaviour and decision-making. With increasing social demand for a sustainable future, managing our environmental and social expectations is an increasingly difficult task moving forward.

Meeting these complex challenges requires versatile, highly skilled, interdisciplinary professionals with skills in critical analysis, political critique and problem-solving to grapple with the environmental challenges that will continue to plague our society. Graduates in sustainability will not only acquire these skills, they will be well placed for employment in resource management, social responsibility, environmental policy, law, sustainability, management, non-profits, corporate and marketing.

GETTING INTO DEAKIN

Life doesn't always follow a straight line – and your path to Deakin doesn't have to either.

Finishing Year 12?

If you are finishing Year 12, you can apply for most of Deakin's undergraduate courses commencing in Trimester 1 (March) through the Victorian Tertiary Admissions Centre (VTAC) at vtac.edu.au. For courses commencing in Trimester 2 (July) or Trimester 3 (November), apply directly to Deakin at deakin.edu.au/apply.

Finished Year 12 a few years ago?

If you're returning to study after a break, you can apply for most of Deakin's undergraduate courses (bachelor's degrees) commencing in Trimester 1 (March) through the Victorian Tertiary Admissions Centre (VTAC), or you may be able to apply directly to Deakin. For courses beginning in Trimester 2 (July) or Trimester 3 (November), apply directly to Deakin at deakin.edu.au/apply.

What are pathways?

Pathways provide alternative options for entry into university if you currently do not meet the requirements. You can choose pathways through TAFE, other tertiary institutions or private providers, through the workforce or even through other Deakin courses or campuses.

Pathways through Deakin

You can take many different pathways through Deakin to get into your dream course, including the Associate Degree of Arts, transferring between Deakin courses or campuses or undertaking a single unit of study, which can be used as credit towards a degree.

Pathways through Deakin College

Deakin College offers an excellent pathway to Deakin for students who do not meet the admission requirements. The first year of a Deakin College diploma is equivalent to the first year of the relevant Deakin degree. Upon satisfactory completion of a Deakin College diploma, and subject to meeting University entrance criteria, domestic graduates are eligible to apply for a Commonwealth Supported Place in the second year of the relevant Deakin undergraduate degree.

ASSOCIATE DEGREE OF ARTS

University can be a challenge, so the Associate Degree of Arts provides students with a supported learning environment. Deakin's Associate Degree of Arts is a two-year, full-time (or part-time equivalent) program specifically designed for students who may not meet the entry requirements for their desired course, and would benefit from a supported entry to tertiary study. Completion of a Deakin associate degree provides up to 18 months credit and guaranteed entry to certain courses, ensuring you are comfortable and well prepared to be a successful Deakin student.

Find out more by visiting deakin.edu.au/pathways.

Deakin College is located at Deakin's Melbourne Burwood Campus, Geelong Waterfront Campus and Geelong Warrn Ponds Campus, giving you access to Deakin's facilities and services and allowing you to get involved in uni life while at Deakin College.

Pathways through TAFE

If you undertake an eligible TAFE course in a field similar to the Deakin course of your choice, you may be able to gain a guaranteed place at Deakin and credit for prior learning towards your Deakin degree.

Complete a guaranteed entry pathway

Guaranteed entry pathways enable you to progress seamlessly from selected TAFE courses to Deakin degrees. Deakin offers guaranteed entry pathways from a number of TAFE partners to university in a growing range of disciplines.

If you are taking a guaranteed entry pathway, as long as your study performance meets the required standard, you will be guaranteed a place at Deakin following successful completion of your TAFE course and benefit from up to 18 months' credit towards your Deakin degree.

Currently, guaranteed entry pathways are available at Bendigo TAFE, Box Hill Institute, Chisholm, The Gordon, Kangan Institute, Melbourne Polytechnic, South West Institute of TAFE and TAFE NSW – Riverina Institute. For the most up-to-date list of guaranteed pathways, visit deakin.edu.au/pathways.

Complete a relevant TAFE course

If you undertake an eligible TAFE or Registered Training Organisation (RTO) course in a field similar to the Deakin course of your choice, you may gain credit towards your Deakin degree. A wide range of courses lead to credit transfer and recognition, and all TAFE qualifications are considered for application to Deakin.

Pathways through other educational institutions

If you're currently studying at another university and wish to transfer to Deakin to finish your degree, you can apply for credit for prior learning. All university and private education provider qualifications are considered for application, even if the qualification is unrelated to what you want to study at Deakin.

Pathways through the workforce

You may be able to gain entry to Deakin, or credit towards a Deakin course, based on your work experience or prior industry training.

For more information on getting into Deakin, visit deakin.edu.au/pathways.

Develop a systematic understanding of the international forces shaping government, business and community life in contemporary Australia and the world. An important component of the course is a genuine international study experience and the opportunity to gain cross-cultural experience through studying in Australia and taking part in study and/or internships overseas.

The course offers an Asia-Pacific view on international relations, security and cultural studies. You can choose to specialise in language studies, international relations or international politics.

Course structure

24 credit points – six core units, a major sequence selected from the list below and at least 2 credit points of approved international experience.

International study experience

Take advantage of several opportunities for international experiences, including:

- trimester of study at an overseas university exchange partner
- international internship
- in-country language program (in Arabic, Chinese, Indonesian or Spanish)
- approved study abroad program
- approved onshore internship with an international organisation.

Internship units are normally undertaken in third year (or equivalent) and are subject to completion of specified prerequisite units and special application requirements. Interested students should contact the Faculty of Arts and Education Student Support and Enrolment Enquiries for more information.

THE POWER OF DIPLOMACY – UN YOUTH AUSTRALIA FINALS

In 2015, Deakin was proud to be a part of the UN Youth Australia finals and host the Evatt Competition – National Finals – a competition that challenges young Australians to step into the role of the United Nations Security Council and tackle the world's biggest issues. Students were immersed in interactive sessions with humanities and social sciences academics and participated in a networking breakfast with high-profile international diplomats.

Just as the Evatt Competition aims to empower young people as active citizens, Deakin is committed to ensuring that its graduates are able to thrive in any environment, equipped with the skills and values to enable lifelong success.

‘We organise an exchange program and an in-country study program in a Spanish-speaking country. For many students this is a unique opportunity to not only travel and learn, but live abroad and acquire a taste for a new culture. In terms of job opportunities Spanish is one of the most widely spoken languages in the world, and growing. Translators, teachers, language mediators are more and more in demand.’

Note: Applicants who wish to undertake the Diploma of Language concurrently with another degree, must apply through VTAC for a place in the degree and, once enrolled, subsequently apply with the faculty for the Diploma of Language.

The Diploma of Language is a three-year, part-time course that can be studied alongside your undergraduate degree, commencing in the first or second year of study, adding only six months or one year to the length of your degree.

The course can be taken in Arabic, Chinese (Mandarin), Indonesian or Spanish and caters to people with different levels of experience. It provides the opportunity to go overseas and study the language in the country where it is spoken, gaining credit towards your diploma at the same time.

A language qualification improves your employment opportunities locally and overseas. Study Arabic and you may be able to work in the Arab Gulf States, the Middle East or North Africa. Study Chinese (Mandarin) to improve your opportunities to work in China, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Singapore, or study Indonesian and you may work in Malaysia or Indonesia. Knowledge of the Spanish language improves your opportunities to work in South America, Central America, the United States, Spain and other parts of Europe.

YEAR 12 PREREQUISITES	ADDITIONAL ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
There are no prerequisite studies for this course.	Both Year 12s and non-Year 12s must complete an application form.

This course is designed for students who do not satisfy the usual university entry requirements: students who have completed Year 12 but have achieved an ATAR score that is insufficient to gain normal entry; students who have left school before year 12 and have been working for a number of years; students who have completed a VET qualification or program offered by TAFE or a private provider; or students who are undertaking a training course at TAFE.

The Associate Degree of Arts provides a pathway into university in most discipline areas, as well as guaranteeing entry into the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Communication, Bachelor of Creative Arts or the Bachelor of Criminology. The core units focus on the knowledge and skills you need to be a successful university student, providing you with an introduction to studying at university and ensuring that you become a more independent learner. They also provide support for your study in other subject areas, particularly through the development of academic writing, critical thinking and information technology skills.

Course structure

16 credit points.

You will be guided with your subject selection to ensure you choose units that will provide the maximum credit when using the associate degree as a pathway to a bachelor's degree.

* The 4 foundation units must be undertaken at a campus. Students studying via the Cloud Campus must travel weekly to one of Burwood, Warrnambool or Warrnambool to undertake these units.

COMBINED COURSES

Some courses at Deakin allow you to undertake two degrees concurrently. You can complete two degrees with just one extra year of study saving you time and money.

Increase your career options

Studies have shown that employers prefer graduates of combined courses. Deakin offers powerful combinations that will help you stand out as a graduate and increase your career options.

Increase your knowledge

When you graduate you'll have up-to-date knowledge of two disciplines. Later on, you may choose to undertake a graduate program in another area of special interest.

Graduate sooner

Combined courses are designed to allow you to complete both courses in as little as four or five years, which is quicker than completing one degree followed by the other.

It doesn't double the work

Combined degrees are structured in such a way that you will normally study four units (subjects) per trimester, just the same as you would if you were completing a single degree.

Work-integrated learning

Deakin graduates hit the ground running thanks to work-integrated learning programs. We offer a wide range of programs that help give you a taste of the real world, from internships to community-based volunteering and more.

Study interesting and complementary areas

A combined course allows you to undertake complementary studies in both degrees while exploring particular areas of interest to you. For example, combining an arts degree with a law degree enhances your understanding of the context in which the law operates. You can choose to study areas such as history, sociology, philosophy, politics or literature in addition to law studies.

Professional recognition

Accreditation provides industry recognition of the quality of the qualifications received at Deakin, with many of our courses professionally accredited. For example, the Bachelor of Cyber Security part of the Bachelor of Criminology/Bachelor of Cyber Security combined degree is professionally accredited with the Australian Computer Society (ACS).

EXPERIENCE LIFE BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

At Deakin we want you to have an incredible learning experience while enjoying all that university life has to offer. That's why – along with leading facilities and fast, reliable Wi-Fi – all of our campuses offer places to socialise, grab a coffee and take time out. Soaking up the university atmosphere, having a lively debate with friends and spending time reflecting on what was said in class, are all valuable parts of the student experience.

'I think both arts and law are areas that require detailed thinking about abstract concepts. This style of learning – where the world is viewed in shades of grey – greatly appeals to me.'

Mentor, guide and educate young adults with this joint qualification. Combine teaching and the arts, and go on valuable school placements to help you discover your interests as a future teacher.

The course combines a postgraduate teaching qualification with undergraduate discipline studies in the arts relevant for teaching. The fast-tracked postgraduate level of study means that you are ready to teach after just four years^ of study. This postgraduate level initial teacher education degree gives you the edge to get ahead in the employment market.

Professional recognition

The postgraduate component of this combined degree pathway is accredited by the Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT) as an initial teacher education program against the Australian professional standards for teachers. Graduates of this course who are intending to apply for registration with the VIT may be required to provide further information. You are advised to check with VIT registration requirements carefully.

Work-integrated learning

This course includes 60 days of supervised professional experience.

A Working with Children Check is required before commencing school experience in Trimester 3 of Year 3.

Course structure

36 credit points including your choice of two of the following arts major sequences (8 credit points each):

- one of Anthropology, Australian studies, Philosophy, Politics or Sociology
- one of Children's literature or Literary studies
- one of Arabic or Chinese or Indonesian or Spanish
- one of Visual arts or Photography
- Dance
- Drama
- Geography
- History
- Mathematics
- Media studies
- Music

These study areas can be used to become qualified for two of the following specialist secondary teaching method areas:

- Dance
- Drama
- English
- Geography
- History
- Media

* The fast-tracked postgraduate level of study means that graduates are ready to teach after just four years of study.

^ Following successful completion of the first 3 undergraduate levels of the course, students with a Weighted Average Mark (WAM) above 60 progress to the postgraduate level of the course. Students cannot progress to the postgraduate level of study without completing all 24 credit points at undergraduate level. A WAM of less than 60 results in an alternative exit from D303 with award A300 Bachelor of Arts.
