

If you care about heritage conservation for places or objects and are keen to develop your professional involvement we offer a range of two-day intensive courses to meet your needs.

These courses are part of the Cultural Heritage and Museum Studies program at Deakin University in Melbourne and are taught by the Cultural Heritage Centre for Asia and the Pacific.

WHO ARE THE COURSES FOR?

- practitioners seeking intellectual extension for professional development
- people considering a career or career change in the heritage/museums field
- practitioners needing to develop a particular area of skill

WHO TEACHES THE COURSES?

The courses are taught by academics and practitioners in the Cultural Heritage and Museum Studies program, School of History, Heritage and Society, directed by Dr Linda Young. Staff are associated with the Cultural Heritage Centre for Asia and the Pacific (CHCAP) under the leadership of Professor William Logan, UNESCO Chair of Heritage and Urbanism.

The CH & MS program is committed to promoting leading edge practice in heritage and museum management, informed by up-to-the-minute research. CHCAP as a Centre offers consultancy in education and research. It has close connections with UNESCO, including the World Heritage Centre, ICOMOS, ICOM, Museums Australia and the Memory of the World.

Courses include comprehensive reading materials and may include site visits.
