MELBOURNE GEELONG WARRNAMBOOL

The Heritage of War is an interdisciplinary study of the ways in which heritage is mobilized in remembering war, and in reconstructing landscapes, political systems and identities after conflict. It examines the deeply contested nature of war heritage in a series of places and contexts, highlighting the modes by which governments, communities, and individuals claim validity for their own experiences of war and the meanings they attach to them.

Heritage, Labour and the Working Classes is both a celebration and commemoration of working class culture. It contains sometimes inspiring accounts of working class communities and people telling their own stories, and weaves together examples of tangible and intangible heritage, place, history, memory, music and literature.

Previous titles in the Series:

Heritage and Globalisation
Cultural Diversity, Heritage and Human Rights
Places of Pain and Shame
Intangible Heritage
