

Report writing - example of a table of contents

CONTENTS

1. Introduction	1
2. Literature review	2
3. Methodology	4
3.1. Participants	4
3.2. Focus groups	5
3.3. Survey forms	7
4. Results	10
5. Discussion	13
6. Conclusion	15
7. Recommendations	16

Note: lists of figures, tables, illustrations, abbreviations and symbols are not generally required, particularly if you only have a few figures, tables, etc. but check your unit guide. Like the Table of contents, each list would simply be a list of figures, a list of tables, a list of illustrations and so on, and the page each particular item can be found on.