deakin.edu.au/referencing

This guide is based on: Melbourne University Law Review Association's *Australian Guide to Legal Citation* (4th ed, 2018), which has further details on how to reference sources.

Note: Different units at Deakin use different referencing styles. Check your unit assessment information to find which style you are required to use.

AGLC explained

The Australian Guide to Legal Citation (AGLC) is a legal citation style used in Australia. It consists of:

- A superscript (raised) number in the body of the text that refers to a footnote at the bottom of the page.
- Footnotes provide the bibliographic details of a source and are numbered consecutively throughout a paper or chapter.
- A bibliography is a full list of sources cited and sources consulted in preparing a paper. The list is divided into sections by source type, and then ordered alphabetically according to the family name of the first-listed author.

Footnotes

All sources must be acknowledged in footnotes. Footnotes should be used whenever ideas are discussed or when sources are summarised, paraphrased or quoted, unless the full source is already provided in text.

The superscript number should be placed at the end of the portion of text to which the corresponding footnote refers. The number should appear after any relevant punctuation, such as a full stop or a comma.

The control order process undermines the fundamental principle that a person's liberty should not be restricted unless there is a judicial finding of criminal guilt.<sup>1</sup>

The first time a source is cited, the footnote must provide full bibliographic details. Footnotes for subsequent references to the same source do not repeat all the details but use a shortened form – see the section below on repeat citations for further details.

In footnotes:

- authors' names should be exactly as they appear in the source
- an author's given name should be provided before the family name
- where there are two or three authors, the names of all the authors are included and the word 'and' separates the names of the last two authors
- where there are more than three authors, include the name of the first-listed author only, followed by 'et al'

- authors' initials are not spaced and there are no full stops after initials
- all titles have the first letter of significant words capitalised
- titles of journals, books and cases and Acts are formatted in italics
- each footnote ends with a full stop. (Note that this is not the case with bibliography entries.)

Aside from referencing, footnotes are also used to provide tangential or extraneous information outside the body of the text. They can be used to back up an argument or to acknowledge a source that has contributed to an argument: see AGLC rule 1.1.5.

Quotation style

Use single quote marks for short quotes of less than three lines. Punctuation marks such as commas and full stops at the end of direct quotes should not be included within quote marks unless they form an important part of that sentence.

Note the broad definition of security arrangements by the Australian Law Reform Commission: 'an interest in property which is held by one person to ensure the performance of an obligation by another'.<sup>16</sup>

For quotes longer than three lines, do not use quotation marks. Start the quote on a new line, in a smaller font size and indent the quote about 1 cm from the left-hand margin of the page.

Hoffmann J concluded that:

The public interest requires a balancing of the advantages to the economy of facilitating the borrowing of money against the possibility of injustice to unsecured creditors. These arguments for and against the floating of charges are matters for Parliament rather than the courts and have been the subject of public debate in and out of Parliament for more than a century.<sup>21</sup>

For quotations within quotations use double quote marks for short quotes and use single quotation marks within indented long quotes.

Bibliography

Check with your unit chair, lecturer or tutor to determine if you are required to compile a bibliography for your assignment.

In a bibliography, list all works referred to both in footnotes and in the body of your assignment, as well as all works consulted in writing your assignment.

Sources should be presented under the following sections where applicable:

A Articles/Books/Reports

B Cases

C Legislation

D Treaties

E *Other

Sources under Other might include:

- government documents, such as parliamentary debates, parliamentary committee reports or Royal Commission reports
- newspaper articles
- television or radio transcripts
- press releases
- legal encyclopedias
- loose-leaf (or legal commentary) services
- internet sources.

Note that details provided in the bibliography are almost identical to details provided in the footnotes, with the following exceptions:

- List entries alphabetically under each section of the bibliography, disregarding 'A', 'An' or 'The'.
- Do not use a full stop at the end of bibliography entries (unlike footnotes which always end with a full stop).

The formatting of authors' names in bibliographic entries also differs from footnotes:

- Order works alphabetically according to the family name of the first-listed author.
- For works by a single author, begin with the author's family name first, followed by a comma and the given name or initials. (Note that in footnotes, the given name or initials appear first, followed by the family name).
- For works by two or three authors, begin with the first-listed author's family name, followed by a comma and the given name or initials. Second and third authors' names are provided in the correct order. Separate the last two authors with 'and'.
- For works by four or more authors, begin with the first-listed author's family name, followed by a comma and the given name or initials, and then 'et al'.

Note that the only examples of bibliographic entries provided are in the sample bibliography that follows. All other examples in this guide are footnotes.

Repeat citations

When a particular source is cited more than once in a paper, the full bibliographic details should only be provided in the first instance.

The terms 'Ibid' and 'n' are used for repeat citations of the same work.

Using 'Ibid'

Use 'Ibid' in a footnote where the immediately preceding footnote refers to the same work. The exception to this rule is if a footnote lists more than one source (in this case use 'n').

If a footnote is to the same work and to the same pinpoint reference, simply use 'Ibid'. The pinpoint reference does not need to be repeated in this instance.

If a footnote is to the same work but to a different pinpoint reference, use 'Ibid' followed by the pinpoint reference.

Using 'n'

Use 'n' to refer to a source that has been cited in a previous footnote other than the immediately preceding footnote. (However, 'n' is required when referring to an immediately preceding footnote that lists more than one source.)

Include 'n' and its number in a round bracket.

Author, (n number of first citation) pinpoint (if different).

When multiple works are referred to by the same author, then a shortened form of the title can be used in subsequent footnotes.

Author's Surname, 'Title' (shortened, if necessary), (n number of first citation) pinpoint (if different).

<sup>48</sup> Kim Rubenstein, 'Meanings of Membership: Mary Gaudron's Contributions to Australian Citizenship' (2004) 15 Public Law Review 305.

Square and round brackets in citations

Volumes of law report series use either square or round brackets around the year.

Square brackets are used where law report series are organised by year.

If the law report series is organised by volume number, the year in which the decision was handed down (or often the year in which the case was reported) is provided in round brackets.

For further information on use of round and square brackets in reported decisions, see AGLC rule 2.2.1.

Note that square brackets are also used for:

- additions and alterations to quotes
- pinpoint references of paragraphs
- distinguishing cases where there is more than one hearing of the same matter (see AGLC rule 2.1.13).

Group author

For sources authored by a body (for example a non-government organisation or a government department), place the name of the body in the author position.

If a government department is the author and the jurisdiction is not evident by the name, the abbreviated jurisdiction should be included in parentheses. See AGLC section 3.1.3 for a list of abbreviations.

<sup>5</sup> Department of Defence (Cth), 'Highest East Timorese Honour for Army Officers' (Media Release, MSPA 172/09, 22 May 2009).

If an individual on behalf of the body is the author, both the individual and the body should be included.

Pinpoint references

A pinpoint reference within a footnote directs the reader to a particular place in the cited work. For sources such as cases, books or journal articles, a pinpoint reference might refer the reader to a particular chapter, page or paragraph. For legislative materials, pinpoint references can also refer to parts, sections, clauses or divisions. A pinpoint reference is provided at the end of both footnotes and bibliography entries.

See Appendix C of the AGLC for a full list of abbreviations used in pinpoint references for legislative materials.

Sections are indicated by an 's' followed by a space and the section number; Sub-sections are indicated by 'sub-s'.

Chapters are indicated by 'ch' followed by a space and the chapter number.

Multiple pinpoint references are separated by a comma. Consecutive pinpoint references are separated by a dash.

For further information on pinpoint references see rule 1.1.6 – 1.1.7 of the AGLC.

Legal abbreviations

Legal abbreviations provide a short-hand way to cite and identify legal publications and courts. The Law Deakin Library Resource Guide provides a list of the most commonly used abbreviations for law reports, journal titles and medium neutral citations, as well as links to the Deakin Library catalogue.

In the AGLC, see the following rules on abbreviations used in citations:

2.2.3 and Appendix A – Law report abbreviations

2.3.1 and Appendix B – Unique court identifiers (for medium neutral citations)

3.1.3 – Jurisdictions

3.1.4 and Appendix C – Abbreviations used in pinpoint references

Cases

Reported

- Case name: full name of case in italics.
- Year: Volumes of law report series are organised either by year or by volume number. For volumes of law report series organised by year, square brackets are used around the year. If the law report series is organised by volume number, the year in which the decision was handed down (or often the year in which the case was reported) is provided in round brackets.
- Volume number
- Abbreviation of report series: Report series have abbreviations that are used in citations. For instance, Commonwealth Law Reports will always appear as CLR in a citation.
- First page of case
- Pinpoint: if required. Refer to the page or paragraph number.

Case Name (year) or [year] Volume number Abbreviation of report series First page of case, pinpoint.

Unreported – Medium neutral citation

Medium neutral citation is a citation system that does not depend on the publisher or the medium of the source. This style is allocated by the court.

Cite unreported cases only if no reported version is available.

- Case name: full name of case in italics.
- Year: in square brackets
- Unique court identifier: See rule 2.3.1 and Appendix B of the AGLC for a list of unique court identifiers.
- Judgement number
- Pinpoint: If required, refer to the paragraph number.

Case name [year] Unique court identifier Judgement number, [pinpoint].

For more information about decisions with medium neutral citations see rule 2.3.1 of the AGLC.

For information about unreported cases without a medium neutral citation see rule 2.3.2 of the AGLC.

Legislative materials

Acts

The year of the Act appears in italics following the title.

The jurisdiction abbreviation is included in brackets. See AGLC rule 3.1.3 for jurisdiction abbreviations.

For more information on abbreviations used in pinpoint references see rule 3.1.4 of the AGLC.

Title of Act year (Abbreviation of jurisdiction) pinpoint.

Citing individual parts of legislative materials

A short title may be given for a portion of an Act, piece of delegated legislation or Bill.

The short title is provided in brackets at the end of the first citation. This short title is then used in subsequent references.

Pinpoints following the short title in subsequent references refer only to items within that portion of the Act.

For further information, see AGLC rule 3.1.7.

Bills

Bills are cited in similar way to Acts but the title is not italicised. The year of the bill follows the title.

Pinpoints are often to clauses or subclauses. For more information on abbreviations used in pinpoint references see rule 3.1.4 of the AGLC.

Title of Bill year (Abbreviation of jurisdiction) pinpoint.

For information on how to refer to a portion of a Bill, see advice in this guide under ‘Acts’.

Explanatory memoranda

Explanatory memoranda are also known as explanatory statements or explanatory notes in different jurisdictions and should be cited appropriately for each jurisdiction. Pinpoints are usually to pages, or pages and paragraphs.

Books

Overview

- Author names should be provided as they appear in the publication. Initials are not spaced and there are no full stops after initials.
- Capitalise the first letter of each word in titles except articles (a, an, the), conjunctions (and) and prepositions (by, for, with). Italicise book titles and place chapter titles within single quote marks.
- Provide the publisher, the edition number (other than the first edition) and the year together in round brackets.
- Pinpoints are usually to chapters, pages or paragraphs.
- If an e-book is also available in print, cite as a print book source. If an e-book is not available in print, then cite as you would other internet sources.

Books – one to three authors

First Author, Second Author and Third Author, Title of Book (Publisher, edition number, year) pinpoint.

Books – four or more authors

Provide the name of the first-listed author only, then 'et al'.

First Author et al, Title of Book (publisher, edition number, year) pinpoint.

<sup>14</sup> Robert Cryer et al, An Introduction to International Criminal Law and Procedure (Cambridge University Press, 2007) 87.

Chapter in an edited book

Begin the footnote with the author of the chapter and also provide the name of the editor(s) of the book.

Author, 'Title of Chapter' in Editor (ed), Title of Book (publisher, edition number, year) first page of chapter, pinpoint.

Legal dictionary

Hard copy

If there are multiple definitions for a term, provide the number of the relevant definition preceded by 'def'.

Dictionary title* (edition number, year) 'entry title' (definition number).

Online

Dictionary title* (online at date of retrieval) 'entry title' (definition number).

Legal encyclopedias

- Provide the date of retrieval for both print and online.
- Do not give the paragraph title.
- Include date of chapter update, if provided.

Hard copy

Publisher, Title of Encyclopedia, volume number (at date of retrieval) Title number Name of title, 'Chapter number Name of chapter' [paragraph].

<sup>16</sup> LexisNexis, Halsbury's Laws of Australia, vol 4 (at 11 February 2019) 75 Charities, '1 Charitable Purposes' [75-1].

Online

Publisher, Title of Encyclopaedia (online at date of retrieval) Title number Name of Title, 'Chapter number Name of Chapter' [paragraph].

<sup>38</sup> LexisNexis, Halsbury's Laws of Australia (online at 1 June 2018) 90 Constitutional Law, '6 Limitations on Legislative Powers' [90-2226].

Journal articles

Overview

- Author names should be provided as they appear in the publication. Initials are not spaced and there are no full stops after initials.
- Capitalise the first letter of each word in titles except articles (a, an, the), conjunctions (and) and prepositions (by, for, with). Italicise journal titles, and place titles of articles within single quote marks.
- Both the volume and issue number should be included. Issue number is in round brackets immediately after the volume number.
- Provide the first page of the article.
- Pinpoint references are usually to pages.
- If an article is available in both print and online formats, cite the print version. If citing the online version, the date of retrieval is not given.

Journal article – one to three authors

First Author, Second Author and Third Author, 'Title of Article' (year) volume(issue) Journal Title first page of article, pinpoint.

<sup>48</sup> Sharon Rodrick, 'Forgeries, False Attestations and Impostors: Torrens Systems Mortgages and the Fraud Exception to Indefeasibility' (2002) 7(1) Deakin Law Review 97, 106.

Journal article – four or more authors

Cite the first-listed author only, followed by 'et al'.

First Author et al, 'Title of Article' (year) volume(issue) Title of Journal first page of article, pinpoint.

Online journal article

Articles appearing in journals that are only available online should, to the extent possible, be cited the same way as print journal articles.

- A date of retrieval is not required.
- A URL is not required.

<sup>4</sup> Kate Lewins, 'What's the Trade Practices Act Got to Do with It? Section 74 and Towage Contracts in Australia' (2006) 13(1) eLaw Journal: Murdoch University Electronic Journal of Law 58, 59.

Where it not possible to include a volume number, issue number or starting page, another identifier (such as an article number) may be used.

If the article only online, as a PDF or equivalent, include the page range of the article after any article number/identifier.

Government documents

Law reform commission report

- The type of publication ('Report', 'Issues Paper' etc.) should be included, where appropriate, as the document type.
- Where reports contain multiple volumes, include the volume number in the pinpoint reference.
- Pinpoint references should be to page numbers where available. Paragraph numbers may be referred to in addition to page numbers or where page numbers are not available.

Name of Law Reform Commission, Title (document type and number, month year) pinpoint.

<sup>41</sup> Australian Law Reform Commission, For Your Information: Australian Privacy Law and Practice (Report No 108, May 2008) vol 1, 339.

Parliamentary committee report

Where a committee is from one chamber and this is not evident, then the name of the chamber is added before the committee name, as in the addition of 'Senate' in the example below.

Pinpoint references should be to page numbers where available. Paragraph numbers may be referred to in addition to page numbers or where page numbers are not available.

Committee, Legislature, Title (year) pinpoint.

<sup>11</sup> Law Reform Committee, Parliament of Victoria, Inquiry into Alternative Dispute Resolution and Restorative Justice (2009) 26.

<sup>39</sup> Senate Legal and Constitutional References Committee, Parliament of Australia, Administration and Operation of the Migration Act 1958 (2006) 280–1 [9.30]–[9.38].

Parliamentary debate

For parliamentary debates (or 'Hansard'), speakers' titles such as 'Senator' need not be included; however, if the position of the speaker within the ministry or shadow ministry is relevant, it may be included.

Jurisdiction, Parliamentary Debates, Chamber, day month year of debate, pinpoint (Name of Speaker).

Royal Commission report

- No jurisdiction should be included in the citation.
- Where reports contain multiple volumes, include the volume number in the pinpoint reference.
- Pinpoint references should be to page numbers where available. Paragraph numbers may be referred to in addition to page numbers or where page numbers are not available.

Name of Royal Commission* (document type, month year) pinpoint.

Artificial intelligence

When using generative artificial intelligence, you need to ensure that your final submitted assessment is your own work, creation, and analysis.

Where you have used generative AI in developing your assessment (for example, in the development of ideas, problem solving, data analysis, significant writing feedback) you should acknowledge your use of it.

It is also essential that you provide details about where and how you have used it.

- First, read assessment instructions in your unit site or check with your Unit Chair whether you are allowed to use generative AI and how you are allowed to use it.
- Understand the limitations and the risks.
- Critically evaluate any output.
- Document how you used the tool and acknowledge this in your final submission.

Your acknowledgement should include:

- the name of the generative AI tool (you can also include the version, if known)
- the month and year you accessed it
- (where relevant) details of your prompts, the output, and precisely where in your assessment you have used generative AI. Discuss unit requirements with your Unit Chair.

This can go in an 'Acknowledgements' section and further details can be provided in an Appendix.

This paper was edited with the assistance of Name of generative AI tool (accessed Month Year). I have critically assessed and validated any generated feedback. The final version of the paper is my own creation.

I acknowledge the use of Name of generative AI tool (accessed Month Year) and Name of generative AI tool (accessed Month Year) in developing some of my ideas and writing for this assessment. All AI-generated output was critically reviewed. Examples of prompts, outputs and my responses are provided in Appendix B. The final content, conclusions and assertions in this paper are my own.

This assessment was completed with the assistance of Name of generative AI tool (accessed Month Year). With the permission of my Unit Chair, I have used these tools to develop the fictional case studies that provide the background for Section 2 of the assessment. See Appendix A for further details. All other writing and analysis in this assessment is my own.

Examples adapted from: Bozkurt, A. (2024). GenAI et al.: Cocreation, authorship, ownership, academic ethics and integrity in a time of generative AI. Open Praxis, 16(1), 1–10. <https://doi.org/10.55982/openpraxis.16.1.654>

Can I cite generative AI?

In most cases, citing AI-generated content as a primary source of information for an assessment is not acceptable. You will need to discuss unit rules and requirements with your Unit Chair.

All sources of information for assessment need to be evaluated for credibility. Cite recommended journal articles, books, websites and other reliable and credible sources.

If you have concluded that generative AI is an appropriate source to cite for your task, then it needs to be cited appropriately.

In all cases, you must acknowledge the use of generative AI as outlined above. In addition, you can cite as follows.

When acknowledging or citing the use of generative AI, do not humanise the tool. ChatGPT does not “discuss”, “report”, or “allege” as a human author does. Instead, simply acknowledge your use of the tool, when you used it and details of how you used it.

Footnotes

The following is interim guidance from the AGLC4 editors on citing AI tools:

- Use the AGLC4 rule 7.12 ‘Written correspondence’.
- Discursive text may be used in the footnote to provide information about the prompts used to generate the output, in accordance with AGLC rule 1.1.5.
- An appendix may be used in order to provide comprehensive information about the series of prompts and outputs used to generate the final output.

Bibliography

"Written correspondence" sources are included in the bibliography (See AGLC4 rule 1.13), generally under the heading 'Other'.

In the case of AI tools, provide the creator's name and the recipient's name first.

For example:

OpenAI, ChatGPT to John Smith, Description of output, 23 February 2023.

Internet sources

- A source should be cited as an internet source only if it does not exist in print form.
- An author should only be cited if indicated on the webpage being cited, such as on a blog post. Where the author and web page are identical, the author should not be included.
- Include the document type: 'Blog Post', 'Forum Post' etc. Where the type is not clear, use 'Web Page'.
- Where available, the full date of the last update of the webpage should be included. Where the full date is not provided, include as much of the full date as available.
- The date of retrieval is not included in the citation.
- Where the full URL is very long, and as long as the document can be easily located, you may provide the URL of the home page.

<sup>113</sup> Owen Hayford, 'Back to the Past for Dodgy Construction Payment Adjudications: Probuild and Maxcon', Opinions on High (Blog Post, 23 February 2018)
<<https://blogs.unimelb.edu.au/opinionsonhigh/2018/02/23hayford-probuild-and-maxcon/>>.

Media release

- The author and body releasing the document should be identified. Where the author is the same as the body, the body should be omitted.
- Release type should be as on the document (e.g. Media Release, Press Statement). If there is no release type on the document, use 'Media Release'.
- Only include a document number if it appears on the release. It may be abbreviated but without full stops.

Author (jurisdiction), 'Title' (Release type document number, Body, day month year) pinpoint.

<sup>5</sup> Department of Defence (Cth), 'Highest East Timorese Honour for Army Officers' (Media Release, MSPA 172/09, 22 May 2009).

<sup>6</sup> Australian Securities and Investments Commission, 'ASIC Releases Consultation Paper on Reform of Fees and Costs Disclosure for Superannuation and Managed Investment Schemes' (Media Release 19-002MR, 8 January 2019).

A URL may be included where it assists with retrieval.

Author (jurisdiction), 'Title' (Media Release, Document Number if provided, day month year) pinpoint <URL>.

<sup>12</sup> Australian Competition and Consumer Commission, 'ACCC Accepts a Variation to the Digital Radio Access Undertakings' (Media Release, 19 December 2013) <<http://www.accc.gov.au/media-release/accc-accepts-a-variation-to-the-digital-radio-access-undertakings>>.

News article

Author, 'Title of Article', Newspaper (Place of Publication, day month year) pinpoint.

If an article appears in a named section of a newspaper and the section is independently paginated, the name of the section should be included in italics before the title of the newspaper.

Online newspaper articles should only be cited where an identical print edition of the newspaper or the article cited does not exist. A date of retrieval is not required.

Author, 'Title of Article', Newspaper (online, day month year) pinpoint <URL>.

<sup>56</sup> Farrah Tomazin, 'Kinder Wages Breakthrough', The Age (online, 19 May 2009) <<http://www.theage.com.au/national/education/kinder-wages-breakthrough-20090519.bcwh.html>>.

If there is no listed author, begin the footnote with the title of the article.

Television and other media

- The full date should be included based on the time zone from which the podcast or radio segment originates.
- A URL may be added to aid retrieval.
- Pinpoint may be used, specifying the hour/minute/second of the episode.

'Episode title', Series or podcast title (version details, Studio/Production company/Producer day month year)

<sup>33</sup> 'States Legislators Vying to Pass Same-Sex Marriage Laws', The Law Report (ABC Radio National, 29 October 2013) 00:06:20
