Course overview

Fast track your studies and gain a postgraduate teaching qualification in just four years with Deakin's Bachelor of Arts/Master of Teaching (Secondary). This course prepares you with the attributes, discipline-specific knowledge, professional behaviours and standards required to practice as a secondary school teacher in Australia, teaching from lower secondary to senior secondary levels.

You will start with Deakin's Bachelor of Arts, designing your studies around your interests to create unique combinations of majors and minors. While studying your undergraduate degree, you'll also be building the foundation knowledge that will take you into your postgraduate teaching studies.

In the Master of Teaching, you will learn with esteemed academics to engage in theoretical and practical learning experiences that will build the foundations for your future career in education.

Professional experience

Deakin's Professional Experience Program is a key part of your course, ensuring you have the practical skills needed from day one of your teaching career. Working with more than 1,400 schools across Australia, a dedicated team will help you find the right placements based on your interests, skills, residential location and mode of transport. We'll arrange at least 60 days of placements for you in schools where you'll learn from experienced teachers. Deakin also participates in the Victorian State Government supported teaching academies and alliances program. Our alliance partners offer pre-service teachers with placement opportunities in local schools – with some placements exclusive to Deakin students.

Professional recognition

This course is accredited by the Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT) as an initial teacher education program. You will be eligible to apply for registration with VIT on successful completion. Check the requirements relating to this process at vit.vic.edu.au.

Career opportunities

The education and training industry is one of the largest growing employment industries in Australia, and is projected to grow by 11.2% by May 2023* – that's 11,300 new jobs.

Teaching and education courses at Deakin lead to careers that can make a profound and lasting contribution to the future by positively educating and influencing the lives of students. Teaching is a rewarding career that offers creativity, flexibility and opportunity beyond working in a classroom.

As a Deakin graduate, you may find employment as a teacher within the private, independent or public education sectors. Opportunities also exist in government agencies, community services or not-for-profit organisations.

The Deakin difference

Deakin is ranked among the top 5 universities in Australia for its education courses, based on the 2020 QS World University Rankings by Subject, which are informed by academic and employer reputation, as well as research impact.

We maintain close links with the education sector to ensure our courses are developed and reviewed with industry and professional input. You'll be taught by teaching staff with industry experience, recognised as leaders and innovators in their fields – so you can be confident that what you learn at Deakin will be relevant to your teaching career.

If you choose to study at Deakin's Cloud Campus, you will join a vibrant online community with over 60,000 students. Deakin has over 40 years of experience in distance and online learning so we understand how to support your unique study journey. You will have access to lectures and resources and can participate in live-streamed seminars and class discussions. You can submit assignments easily and efficiently online and get assistance when you need it from Australia's highest-rated student tech support.

*Australian Government Department of Jobs and Small Business, 2018 Employment Projections – for the five years to May 2023.

'Deakin offered me incredible support for my teaching placement, with frequent check-ins and providing a tonne of resources. When I returned to uni, I felt like our learning had so much more relevance, because I could apply it to the experiences I had at my placement.'
