The Graduation Ceremony

'Kim barne barre Wadawurrung Dja' Welcome to Wadawurrung Country

Deakin University would like to acknowledge the Wadawurrung People, the traditional custodians of the land and the Wathaurong community where this graduation ceremony is taking place. We pay our respects for their continued care of the land and further extend that respect to elders past and present.

Order of Ceremony

Processional music heralds the arrival of the Academic Procession for the graduation ceremony.

At the commencement of this music, graduands and guests are asked to stand and remain standing for the National Anthem.

The Master of Ceremonies will open proceedings and the Chancellor (or representative) will deliver the opening address. The Vice-Chancellor (or representative) will then introduce the guest speaker who will deliver the occasional address.

The Chancellor (or representative) will then make a formal declaration conferring the awards of the University on the graduates, both present and in absentia, and will invite graduates to proceed to the stage according to the order published in the program.

A Faculty Executive Dean (or representative) will read out the names of graduates being presented to the Chancellor (or representative).

At the conclusion of the presentation of the graduates, a representative of the graduating students will deliver a brief response.

The Vice-Chancellor (or representative) will deliver the closing address. Following the closing address, there will be a musical performance.

At the conclusion of the ceremony guests are requested to stand while the stage party and graduates leave the hall.

Refreshments will then be served in the marquee in the John Hay Courtyard.

The University Mace

Maces were originally medieval weapons carried by bodyguards to kings and sergeants-at-arms. Much later, the mace became of ceremonial rather than practical significance and organisations such as civic corporations and universities adopted the mace as a symbol of the rule of legal authority.

The University's mace is displayed at meetings of the University Council and on such ceremonial occasions as conferring ceremonies. The bearer of the mace, in academic processions, 'guards' the Chancellor. Deakin's mace was presented to the University by Mr Donald Thomson, Sir Wilfred Brookes and Mr Norman Stephen (Alcoa Australia).

The Academic Procession

In academic processions, the order of precedence on entry is from junior to most senior. The Chancellor, therefore, is the last member of the procession, followed by the mace-bearer. The Deakin Academic Procession and stage party usually consists of:

Academic Dress

Academic dress is an important reminder of the long history of universities in western civilisation. The three main elements of academic dress are the gown, the hood and the head-dress, which were all once articles of everyday outer dress. Both gowns and hoods, when in common use, were often lined and this lining was decorative, as well as practical. In medieval times, the higher the rank of the wearer, the more sumptuous the gown.

In universities there is still a difference in the apparel of scholars of various ranks reflecting the origins of the academic dress. Today's academic head-dress evolved from various hats and bonnets of earlier times. Deakin University's academic dress, like that of most Australian universities, derives from dress worn at the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge.

The Performers

Deakin's graduation ceremonies include a number of live musical performances, including the National Anthem and a musical arrangement at the conclusion of the ceremony. These are the biographies of the artists who perform at the ceremonies. Performers may vary between ceremonies.

Michael Cristiano

Michael Cristiano is one of Australia's most highly acclaimed performers, composers and record producers. As a producer, his name can be found on numerous multi-platinum selling albums by such artists as The Seekers, Judith Durham, Silverchair, Andre Rieu, Mirusia and Gene Pitney amongst many other big names. As a performer, he is renowned for his on-stage presence, unique, soulful voice and virtuoso guitar skills that continue to wow audiences worldwide. He is one of the country's most respected musicians and composers and has taken home many prestigious music awards. In 2019, The Seekers founding members Athol Guy, Keith Potger and Bruce Woodley joined Michael at his Soundplant recording studio to revisit songs they'd sung in earlier years, and a few they wish they'd sung. The resulting album "Back To Our Roots" was released to rave reviews and "The Original Seekers" (as they were now known) embarked on a sell-out national tour. With a string of ARIA Number one albums to his production portfolio and a new solo album in the works, he continues to be one of the brightest and dynamic stars on the Australian music scene, dedicating his time and unique skills to both his own projects and those of emerging artists and established veterans alike.

Ron Murray

Ron Murray is a Wamba Wamba man (Swan Hill area) living at Yapeen, near Castlemaine in central Victoria on Jaara country. She aspires to a career in health and science.

The support she received ignited her passion to expand her craft and in 2015 her first EP 'Lolita' was released gaining international airplay and much critical acclaim. Over the past few years she has also become a recurring session vocalist on The Voice Australia, X-Factor and the upcoming album for musical act, 'Owl Eyes'. Ashleigh has had great success with several of her original songs signing to music libraries across the globe. The University

Alfred Deakin

Deakin University was named in honour of Alfred Deakin (1856–1919), a remarkable Australian statesman, leading figure of the federation movement and three-time Prime Minister of Australia.

Alfred Deakin was a man of broad vision. Praised as a political leader, he was an outstanding orator, accomplished lawyer, a journalist, poet, an intellectual and an idealist motivated by a sense of duty to his country.

The son of English migrants, Alfred Deakin was born and educated in Melbourne, studying law at the University of Melbourne. He embarked upon a career in journalism with The Age and was a prolific reader of literature, philosophy, law and science, earning most of his income as a writer of social and political commentaries.

In 1879, Alfred Deakin launched his political career and became a successful Liberal candidate for the Victorian Parliament. A believer in democratic social reform, he became the acknowledged leader of the Australian Federation movement in Victoria. He was an active campaigner, a delegate at the federal conventions, member of the constitutional drafting committee and colonial representative in London.

Alfred Deakin was Deputy Prime Minister and Attorney-General in Australia's first government and, in 1903, he became Prime Minister. His many achievements include the establishment of the High Court of Australia, the introduction of labour and social reforms, the promulgation of new technologies such as irrigation and wireless telegraphy, support for the exploration of Antarctica and the introduction of financial support for Australian writers.

Alfred Deakin

The values of innovation, leadership, scholarship and reform embodied in Alfred Deakin are also fundamental values of Deakin University.

Building on the University's success

Deakin University's Strategic Plan – Deakin 2030: Ideas to Impact – provides a bold framework, while remaining true to the University's founding goals:

- to develop lasting and mutually beneficial relationships with rural and regional communities, in particular those in Geelong and Western Victoria
- to offer an educational experience that will widen participation and support students from diverse backgrounds

These important aims continue to be a priority for Deakin University. However, in a world that is globally connected and in which information abounds and is more accessible than ever, innovation and excellence will remain defining characteristics that benefit all our students and staff.

At Deakin, we harness the power of ideas to transform the way we live and think. We nurture a rich and complex ideas ecosystem that delivers lasting value for our students and communities.

What makes us Deakin:

- We excel in both education and research
- We value both excellence and equity
- We are leaders in digital capability
- We are agile and responsive to community need
- Indigenous knowledges and ideas inform our future
- We deliver impact locally and globally
- We seek new opportunities that align with our community commitments

For all these reasons, Deakin University occupies an important place in the Australian higher education landscape.

The Deakin Story

1974–1984

Deakin was established by the Victorian Parliament in 1974 as a 'university in the Geelong area'. Deakin began teaching on 1 April 1977.

Deakin University was named after Alfred Deakin, who served as Prime Minister three times between 1903 and 1910 and was a significant figure in the achievement of Australian Federation.

When it was established, Deakin incorporated two existing Geelong-based institutions – the Geelong State College and the Gordon Institute of Technology.

Deakin had approximately 2500 students in its first year (1977), rising to 4800 in 1980.

By 1984, Deakin had consolidated its operations at the Geelong Waurin Ponds Campus.

1990–1991

Deakin's growth outside Geelong began in 1990 when it amalgamated with the Warrnambool Institute of Advanced Education. This continued in 1991 when it amalgamated with Victoria College, which operated from Burwood, Toorak and Clayton.

1993

Deakin was one of the first Australian universities to embrace professional and continuing education to corporate clients, establishing Deakin Australia (now DeakinCo.) in 1993.

1996

In the mid-1970s, the woolstores on the waterfront in central Geelong was one site considered and rejected for the proposed university that was to become Deakin. In 1996, this idea came to fruition with the opening of the Geelong Waterfront Campus.

2008

In 2008, the Deakin University School of Medicine opened, becoming Victoria's first rural and regional medical school.

2012

February 2012 saw the first intake of students in the new Bachelor of Vision Science/Master of Optometry degree.

2013–2019

During a period of rapid growth between 2013 and 2019, new buildings and major improvements included:

- the iconic gateway building at the Melbourne Burwood Campus
- Centre for Advanced Design Engineering Training at the Geelong Waurin Ponds Campus
- expansion of student accommodation across all campuses.

2014

In March 2014, the University declared it would be a smoke-free environment.

In May, the $34 million globally unique cutting-edge carbon fibre research and innovation facility, Carbon Nexus, officially opened at the Geelong Waurin Ponds Campus.

In December, Deakin celebrated its 200,000th graduate.

2016

In January 2016, John Stanhope AM assumed the position of Deakin's Chancellor, taking over from David Morgan who served as Chancellor for 10 years.

In April, the Deakin Business School received accreditation by The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International, the longest serving global accrediting body for business schools in the world.

In August, the Deakin University Community Bank® initiative with Bendigo Bank was launched – the first collaboration of its kind between a university and a financial institution.

Deakin partnered with FutureLearn to offer full degrees online and short free courses through FutureLearn's global platform.

2017

In 2017 Deakin ranked 213 globally by the prestigious Academic Ranking of World universities.

Also in this year, the expanded TERI-Deakin Nanobiotech Centre was opened by the Prime Minister.

In 2017 Deakin University and LeMond Composites joined forces in a $58m deal to revolutionise the use of carbon fibre across the world.

Soon after, in 2019, Deakin opened two new institutes: the Institute for Health Transformation and the Deakin Applied Artificial Intelligence Institute.

2018

In 2018 Deakin officially launched its Innovation Hub ManuFutures.

Deakin partnered with AusNet Services to establish a 7.25 MW smart microgrid at its Geelong Waurin Ponds campus.

The 2018 Excellence in Research for Australia rankings saw Deakin performing at or above world standard in 100% of its research (up from 90% in 2015).

2019

In March 2019, Deakin celebrated 25 years of engagement in India. Deakin was the first international university to establish an office in India.

In July, Deakin's seventh Vice-Chancellor, Professor Iain Martin begins in the role, taking over from Professor Jane den Hollander AO who served for nine years.

Also in this year, Deakin appointed its inaugural Pro Vice-Chancellor Indigenous Strategy, Professor Mark Rose.

Deakin was awarded an Athena SWAN Bronze Institution Award in recognition of its commitment to advancing the careers of women, trans and gender diverse individuals in STEMM disciplines; in the same year, Deakin received the 'Employer of Choice for Gender Equality' citation for the 13th consecutive year.

2020

In December 2020, the University launched its new ten-year strategic plan, Deakin 2030: Ideas to Impact.

The Hydrogen Training Testbed at the Hycel Technology Hub in Warrnambool was launched.

In March, Deakin launched NIKERI – the National Indigenous Knowledges Education Research Innovation Institute. The following year, the Vice-Chancellor's Indigenous Advisory Council was established.

2021

In 2021, Deakin established ten platforms for discovery and innovation, funded by the Victorian Higher Education State Investment Fund, the Commonwealth Government, Deakin and its partners.

In April, Deakin launched the Renewable Energy Microgrid at the Waurn Ponds Campus, the largest ever solar farm on an Australian university, which will help to achieve Deakin's goal of being carbon neutral by 2025 and carbon negative by 2030.

Between 2019 and 2021, significant infrastructure developments included:

- Nyaal at Waurn Ponds, an immersive teaching facility, and
- the new Law Building at Burwood.

The Campuses

Deakin is a large university with all the accompanying resources and infrastructure, but its campuses are small enough to retain their own character and sense of community. Each of our campuses offers a unique atmosphere – from the inspiring architecture and bayside appeal of our Geelong Waterfront Campus, to the cafe culture of our Melbourne Burwood Campus, the spectacular coastal location at our Warrnambool Campus or the mix of activity and open space at our Geelong Waurin Ponds Campus.

Melbourne Burwood Campus

This thriving campus is Deakin's largest. Located 15km from the Melbourne CBD, it boasts open and inviting spaces for socialising and studying, innovative architecture and wireless locations. An ambitious building program has resulted in a new complex of spacious modern buildings, including the gateway building situated on Burwood Highway and the state-of-the-art Indoor Exercise and Sport Science Teaching Building, completed in 2019. Refurbishment of older buildings, a library extension, expansion of residential accommodation, a 250-seat lecture theatre and a large landscaped central courtyard have all created a campus that is well-resourced and well-designed. The campus is home to the Deakin University Art Gallery and the Deakin Motion.Lab, a state-of-the-art motion capture facility that produces 3D animation and special effects, similar to those used in films such as Avatar and The Lord of the Rings.

Geelong Waurin Ponds Campus

Deakin's Geelong Waurin Ponds Campus is located 8km from the centre of the historic port city of Geelong, which is 72km south-west of Melbourne. Geelong is Victoria's largest regional city with a population close to 225,000.

Set among extensive landscaped grounds, the Geelong Waurin Ponds Campus boasts hectares of native trees, grassy lawns, lakes and avenues. There are many specialist facilities at this campus, including an outstandingly resourced library, audiovisual production studios, research laboratories and an extensive computer centre. The Waurin Ponds Estate provides first-class conference and convention facilities.

Also located at the Geelong Waurin Ponds Campus is the Geelong Future Economy Precinct. The Precinct draws on over 15 years of investment in developing the research expertise and facilities in areas such as carbon and ultra-fine fibre, nanotechnology and composite materials, as well as robotics, pattern recognition and data analytics. Some of Australia's, and the world's, leading advanced manufacturers now call the Precinct home.

Geelong Waterfront Campus

The Geelong Waterfront Campus is Deakin's newest campus, located on the beautiful foreshore of Corio Bay in the central business district of Geelong. Originally built in 1893, the historic woolstore building has undergone extensive redevelopment to create a modern and impressive campus centre.

The centrepiece of the campus is Costa Hall, a concert hall of international standard, where a number of university ceremonies, cultural performances and community functions take place, including Deakin's graduation ceremonies.

Also located at this campus is the refurbished Sally Walker Building, which houses the Alfred Deakin Prime Ministerial Library and the Alfred Deakin Research Institute. The Alfred Deakin Research Institute is an interdisciplinary teaching and research centre covering political science, public policy and governance, international relations, globalisation, journalism and communications.

Warrnambool Campus

Warrnambool is the commercial, cultural and educational heart of south-west Victoria. A premier tourist destination, it boasts stunning coastlines, renowned surf beaches and is the state's foremost site for whale watching.

Located 262km from Melbourne, the campus is set on 114 sprawling hectares on the banks of the picturesque Hopkins River. Our lecturers, students and staff at the Warrnambool Campus form a real community, where communication is open and informal.

Campus facilities include a comprehensive library, excellent teaching and learning spaces, a cafe, gymnasium, bookshop and golf course. Located just 5km from the centre of Warrnambool, the campus ensures that Deakin contributes to the vitality of the local community in the tradition of many university cities.

NIKERI Institute

Deakin University is proud to have the largest number of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students of any Victorian university.

The National Indigenous Knowledges Education Research and Innovation (NIKERI) Institute commenced in 1991 and offers programs that are structured around off-campus community-based delivery, supported by on-campus intensive study blocks and complemented by local tutors in their home communities.

This approach to course delivery promotes access and equity for Indigenous Australian students. Students from all areas of the country – rural, remote and metropolitan, and across all age ranges, particularly mature age – are able to undertake studies without compromising their family and community obligations.

In November 2019, the Institute won the prestigious Dreamtime Education Award for 'Education Institute of the Year'.

Whose thesis is entitled:

‘Small Affinity Probes for Extracellular Nanovesicle-based Cancer Liquid Biopsy.’

Summary

This thesis investigated the utility of small affinity probes for labeling and detecting cancer-derived extracellular vesicles. HER2 affibodies, for the first time, exhibited the superiority over antibodies in accessing and detecting HER2-positive extracellular vesicles. Moreover, specific and sensitive fluorescence polarization-based assays using aptamers were successfully developed for detecting and classifying extracellular vesicles.

Doctoral Degrees

Doctor of Philosophy – PhD

Yuksel Ayden

Whose thesis is entitled:

‘The Face of the Firm? CEO Facial Structure and Organizational Outcomes.’

Summary

This thesis examined the effect of CEOs’ facial structure on firms’ actions and outcomes. It found that the effect of CEO facial structure (measured as facial width-to-height ratio) on firm performance and financial misreporting is carried through an external pathway, that of financial analysts and their earnings forecasts. These results have important theoretical implications for upper echelons theory and advance a novel corporate governance-based understanding of executive influence.

Principal Supervisor:

Professor Alexander Newman

Institute:

Department of Management

Gimhani Yasanthika Ekanayake

Whose thesis is entitled:

‘Three Essays on the Role of Corporate Governance in Efficient Debt Contracting.’

Summary

This thesis contains three empirical studies examining whether and how various internal corporate governance practices influence the efficiency of bank debt contracting. As found in three essays corporate governance practices, such as board governance, corporate general counsel in top management teams, and lead independent directors, play a significant role in improving debt contracting efficiency, thereby reducing costs of bank debt.

Principal Supervisor:

Associate Professor Arifur Khan

Department:

Accounting

Derick Gyabeng

Whose thesis is entitled:

‘Understanding Ion Interactions and Dynamics in Novel Ionic Liquid Electrolytes by Advanced Nuclear Magnetic Resonance Spectroscopy.’

Summary

This study probed the ion interactions and dynamics in novel ionic liquid electrolytes for lithium battery applications. The findings show how nuclear magnetic resonance, complemented with molecular dynamics simulations, can be used to illuminate ion dynamics in complex ionic liquid electrolyte mixtures.

Principal Supervisor:

Associate Professor Luke O’Dell

Institute:

Institute for Frontier Materials

Yijun Qian

Whose thesis is entitled:

‘Fabrication of Two-dimensional Nanomaterials Membranes for Ion Separation related Applications.’

Summary

This thesis studied the key properties of two-dimensional nanomaterial membranes in the field of ion separation. It developed different two-dimensional nanomaterial membranes in combination with targeted synthesis strategies for high-performance desalination and osmotic power generation applications. It found that charge density, nanochannel size and the mechanical integrity of membranes were critical to improving ion separation performance.

Principal Supervisor:

Associate Professor Weiwei Lei

Institute:

Frontier Materials

Dmitrii Rakov

Whose thesis is entitled:

'Molecular Behaviour of Electrode/Ionic Liquid Electrolyte Interface for Rechargeable Batteries.'

Summary

This thesis investigates the link between the interfacial structure/transport properties of ionic liquid electrolytes or traditional electrolytes and the cycling performance of alkaline metal-based batteries. This work explains different strategies to improve the performance of these batteries based on a molecular-level understanding of interfacial phenomena.

Principal Supervisor:

Professor Maria Forsyth

Institute:

Frontier Materials

Eve Udino

Whose thesis is entitled:

'Acoustic Developmental Programming of Behavioural and Physiological Responses to Heat.'

Summary

This thesis investigated the effects of a prenatal acoustic signal of heat on behavioural and physiological responses to heat in an arid-adapted bird. The findings demonstrate that prenatal sound can have multiple and long-lasting effects on individuals' phenotype – from cells to behaviour.

Principal Supervisor:

Professor Kate Buchanan

School:

Life and Environmental Sciences

Kang Wu

Whose thesis is entitled:

'Ductile Fracture with Distortional Hardening under the Non-Proportional Loadings.'

Summary

This study aims to figure out the mechanism of ductile fracture and to properly model the macroscopic hardening behaviours with phenomenological constitutive models. A fracture mode based on maximum shear strain was proposed. Distortional hardening models considering the differential hardening under proportional loadings and non-proportional loadings were proposed.
