- Study options are flexible and can be tailored to suit your needs – combine online and face-to-face study, or study part or full time, for example.
- You can use our learning centres as a pathway into studying at a Deakin campus or online.
- Some Deakin learning centres offer the first year of a range of bachelor degree courses, with some second-year units available at Werribee.

Ending extreme poverty 15 years ago might have seemed like idealism, but this generation can have a voice because of their ability to connect with campaigns and use social and traditional media to do so. They have the capacity to do something.

Study options

We give you the flexibility to study what, when and how you want, so you can fit your studies into your busy life.

Study full time or part time

In most undergraduate degrees you can study full time or part time depending on the number of credit points you take in each trimester. You can even switch between full-time and part-time study throughout most degrees, to suit your personal situation. This means if things change, you’re not locked into a pace that no longer suits you.

Study in the cloud or on campus

You have the option to switch between campus and online learning during your course (provided the course and unit is available in both study modes). You can also combine the two study modes and complete some units in online mode and others in campus mode in the same trimester. Our students love the freedom this gives them to balance other priorities, such as family and part-time work.

Study when you are ready

We have three study periods during the teaching year. This gives you more choice about when to start your degree and can even enable you to fast-track your study by taking extra units throughout the year. Some students take a trimester off to work or travel, then catch up later. It also allows you to spread your study load, so you can fit your studies into your lifestyle.

Deakin’s trimesters run from March to June (Trimester 1), July to October (Trimester 2) and November to February (Trimester 3). Trimester 3 is optional and subject to availability of units.

Digital tools and resources

Students are fully supported with a range of online resources. Through your personalised digital study hub, DeakinSync, you connect with students, learning and assessment experiences, teaching and support staff and potential employers. An experienced student success coach connects with you regularly via Skype and email, providing ongoing support to ensure your personal and professional development.

Institute of Koorie Education (IKE)

The Institute of Koorie Education provides community-based education programs, enabling Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australians the flexibility to gain access to higher education while still being able to maintain family and community connections and obligations.

Our programs offer:

• community-based delivery
• campus-based intensive study blocks in a supportive environment
• local tutors in community.

IKE also offers two graduate programs and one unit in Indigenous Knowledge and Culture.

The approach to course delivery promotes access and equity for Indigenous Australian students, creating a close-knit learning community, as well as an inspiring and supportive learning environment away from home.

Find out more at deakin.edu.au/courses/ike.

Types of undergraduate courses

If you are studying for an associate, bachelor’s or honours degree in a particular subject, you’ve known as an undergraduate student. The term can also be used to describe the degree you’re taking, i.e. an undergraduate degree.

Associate degree

Two years full time or part-time equivalent (for example, Bachelor of Arts).

• Geared towards a specific career or used as preparation for a bachelor’s degree.
• Guaranteed entry into a bachelor’s degree on completion (as approved by Deakin).
• May give you up to 18 months’ credit towards your next degree.
• Some roles (such as medical assistants and paralegals) only require an associate degree.

Bachelor’s degree

Three or four years full time or six years part-time (for example, Bachelor of Arts).

• The minimum tertiary requirement for many professional careers.
• The prerequisite for a master’s degree (or, sometimes, significant work experience in a related area). For some master’s degrees, you may need to complete an honours year or a graduate certificate.
• In some courses you may choose one or more majors in specialised areas.

Bachelor’s degree (honours)

One year full time or part-time equivalent (for example, Bachelor of Arts (Honours)).

• An additional year of specialised study, taken after you complete a bachelor’s degree or with a bachelor’s degree (some courses have a compulsory built-in honours year, for example, Bachelor of Construction Management (Honours)).
• Can help you gain entry into further research study.
• Gives you a competitive edge in the job market.

The path from Year 12 to university isn’t the only way into Deakin. We welcome students through diverse entry pathways. If you didn’t get the marks you needed, haven’t completed Year 12, or are working and looking for ways to transition into tertiary education, we can help.

Pathways through Deakin

Taking a pathway through Deakin means you get to begin the Deakin experience immediately, starting and finishing your study at Deakin.

Complete an associate degree
Deakin’s associate degrees in arts and education are two-year, full-time (or part-time equivalent) programs specifically designed for students who would benefit from a supported entry to tertiary study. Completion of a Deakin associate degree provides up to 18 months of credit and guaranteed entry to certain courses.

Transfer between Deakin campuses
One of the great things about Deakin is that we have five campuses. Many of our courses are offered at more than one campus and the ATAR required for each campus often differs, but the same high-quality degree is delivered no matter which campus you choose. You can apply to transfer your studies from one campus to another after your first trimester of study, with credit for the subjects already completed (subject to availability and meeting academic criteria).

Transfer between Deakin courses
You can apply to study a course with similar subjects or major sequences with a lower ATAR, and use this as a pathway into your ideal course, gaining credit for the subjects already completed (subject to availability and meeting academic criteria).

Undertake single unit (non-award) study
You may wish to undertake single units of study at Deakin, without being enrolled or accepted into a course. These units are subject to fees and do not lead to a degree, but may be credited towards a degree if you succeed in gaining entry to a course at a later stage.

Deakin learning centres
Deakin learning centres enable you to begin tertiary study in a supported environment. At the end of your first year at a learning centre, meeting academic requirements, you can apply to transfer to one of our campuses. Find out more on page 9.

Pathways through Deakin College

Deakin College provides an excellent pathway for students who do not meet the admission requirements for Deakin courses. Deakin College diplomas are equivalent to the first year of a Deakin undergraduate degree. Upon satisfactory completion of a Deakin College diploma, and subject to meeting academic entrance criteria, domestic graduates from Deakin College are eligible to apply for a Commonwealth Supported Place in the second year of the relevant Deakin undergraduate degree.

Deakin College is located at Deakin’s Melbourne Burwood Campus, Geelong Waterfront Campus and Geelong Waurn Ponds Campus, allowing you the opportunity to gain access to Deakin’s facilities and services, and get involved in university life, while undertaking a diploma.

If you are taking a guaranteed entry pathway course, as long as your study performance meets the required standard, you will be guaranteed a place at Deakin following successful completion of your TAFE course. You will also benefit from up to 18 months of credit towards your Deakin degree.

Complete a relevant TAFE course
If you undertake an eligible TAFE or Registered Training Organisation (RTO) course in a field similar to the Deakin course of your choice, you may gain credit towards your Deakin degree. A wide range of courses leads to credit transfer and recognition and all TAFE qualifications are considered for application to Deakin.

Deakin Accelerate for VCE students
If you’re a high-achieving VCE student, Accelerate allows you to study two first-year university subjects during Year 12. Studying one subject per trimester through Accelerate gives you a headstart in university studies while providing a potential boost to your ATAR.

There aren’t any enrolment costs for the units you study as part of Deakin Accelerate, except maybe the cost of a textbook. If your subjects are related to the Deakin course you enrol in after you graduate from secondary school, you’ll gain university credit – that’s two units ticked off your uni degree, for free.

For more information or to apply, visit deakin.edu.au/accelerate.

The scholarship is a really good motivator for me. It encourages me to seek out my own opportunities to develop and improve my character, as well as helping me find professional success through networking. Academically it sets a benchmark for my achievements, which also provides an important incentive.

Step out of the lecture room and into real classrooms. Throughout your degree, you’ll take part in Deakin’s Professional Experience Program. You will spend time working with children in schools, alongside experienced teachers and develop the practical experience you need to hit the ground running.

Links to the education sector
Our courses are developed in consultation with principals, teachers and the Victorian Institute of Teaching, ensuring courses address the needs of the education industry and that our graduates are fully skilled and industry-ready when they enter the workforce.

Placements around the corner or around the world
Our Global Education Program also offers you the chance to undertake a teaching placement overseas, where you’ll experience different cultures, languages, teaching practices and ideas. Or you can expand your professional experience in a remote Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community.

Project-oriented design-based learning (PODBL)
PODBL in collaboration with industry is a key feature of our engineering degrees. This innovative approach to engineering education means that practical learning experiences and real-world projects are woven into our engineering courses from day one.

World-class facilities
The Geelong Waurn Ponds Campus offers a huge range of benefits to engineering students, including access to the Geelong Technology Precinct and the cutting-edge Centre for Advanced Design in Engineering Training (CADET) – a partnership between Deakin and the Australian Government.

Professionally accredited courses
Deakin’s long-standing partnership with Engineers Australia is an important relationship that informs our teaching program, ensures our curriculum is relevant and that our graduates develop the skills employers are looking for. It also gives our engineering degrees professional accreditation, allowing graduates to work around the world.
Environment

As an environment student you will acquire the skills to be involved in environmental developments that help to shape the future for generations to come.

Get your hands dirty

All of Deakin’s environment courses have a focus on practical experience and provide hands-on learning opportunities from year one. Depending on the course you choose, field activities can include anything from coastal planning to surveying wildlife populations.

Thriving research culture

Deakin supports one of the world’s most prestigious environmental and marine science research programs. Our ecologists are helping to protect Australia’s vulnerable flora and fauna from disease, rapid development and climate change. Many academic staff are active researchers, so you will learn of new developments as they happen.

First-class facilities and equipment

Environment students have access to industry-standard equipment, such as a Geographic Information Systems (GIS) lab, wildlife tracking technology, aquaculture facilities, infrared motion sensing wildlife cameras, high-tech research labs, research vessels and remotely operated underwater vehicles.

Key terms

Associate degree
The associate degree structure provides flexible pathways into tertiary education, and can be used as a guaranteed pathway into a range of target degrees (as approved by Deakin University). Completion of an associate degree may give you up to 18 months’ credit towards one of these target degrees. For more information visit deakin.edu.au/courses/entry-pathways/associate-degrees.

Australian Tertiary Admission Rank (ATAR)
The ATAR is a ranking of Year 12 results, which measures your overall academic achievement compared with all other final year students in Australia (excluding Queensland).

Bachelor’s degree
An undergraduate award.

Class
A presentation given by an academic to a large group of students on the subject area being studied. Traditionally known as lecture.

Clear-in ATAR
The ATAR most school-leaver applicants needed to achieve for entry in 2017 to be offered a Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) in a particular course, providing all requirements were met.

Cloud Campus
The Cloud Campus is one of Deakin’s five campuses. It is the campus for students who choose to study wholly online, rather than be based at a physical campus. If you study via the Cloud Campus your full university experience is online, including classes, assessments, and discussions with teachers and students.

Combined course
A combination of courses in complementary areas, studied simultaneously, which leads to two degrees, e.g. Bachelor of Arts/Bachelor of Laws. This means you complete two degrees in less time than it would take to complete them separately.

Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP)
A university place for which the government pays a proportion of tuition costs. Pay up-front and, if eligible, receive a discount.

Computer requirements
To fully engage with the Deakin learning experiences, students need to have access to and be able to use internet-connected devices. There are minimum computer standards required for your computer, connectivity and your computing capability for effective study at Deakin.

For more information on computer standards, please visit deakin.edu.au/courses/how-to-apply/computing-requirements.

Credit point
For each subject you successfully complete, you will receive the credit point value of that subject towards your studies. You must complete a specified number of credit points to obtain your degree. The number of credit points required varies for each course and is outlined at deakin.edu.au/courses.

Credit transfer and recognition
Credit granted towards your Deakin course for relevant approved study, experience or work, satisfactorily completed at Deakin or elsewhere. There are two aspects to credit transfer and recognition:

- credit may be transferred to your Deakin program from completed or partly completed studies you have undertaken at other accredited institutions; and
- credit may be granted on the basis of knowledge and skills acquired through informal learning, e.g. in the workplace.

DeakinSpec
A digital study hub giving Deakin students and staff easy access to relevant University resources, customised to their specific needs.

Deferment
The approved postponement of study for a specified period prior to enrolment in a course. Most Deakin courses allow you to defer your studies for up to two years. Visit deakin.edu.au/courses/how-to-apply/your-offer-and-enrolment-options/how-to-defer.

Equity and diversity
Deakin University values diversity and promotes inclusion. The Equity and Diversity Unit provides a range of programs and services to ensure all students have the opportunity to access university education and succeed in their studies and employment. Visit deakin.edu.au/equity-diversity.

Extra requirements
These are requirements that you must meet, in addition to minimum tertiary entrance requirements, to qualify for entry to a course. Information about extra requirements is listed in this guide from page 20, on the VTAC website (vtac.edu.au) and in Victorian Tertiary Entrance Requirements (VTER) publications.

Faculty
An organisational division within a university; for example, the Faculty of Arts and Education is one of the four faculties at Deakin University. Within each faculty are several schools; for example, Deakin Law School is within the Faculty of Business and Law.

Grade Point Average (GPA)
A GPA is an internationally recognised numerical calculation used to find the average result of all grades received over a defined study period. The GPA can be used for a variety of purposes, including as selection criteria for admission to a program or for assessing academic progress over a set period for progress review purposes.

Graduate entry
A course that requires prior completion of an undergraduate degree for entry. Deakin’s Bachelor of Medicine/Bachelor of Surgery is a graduate-entry course.

Higher Education Contribution Scheme-Higher Education Loan Program (HECS-HELP)
HECS-HELP is a government loan scheme to help eligible CSP students pay for tuition costs. Repayments are made through the Australian taxation system once your annual income exceeds the minimum threshold for repayment.

Honours
Honours is an additional year of specialised study, usually taken after you complete a bachelor’s degree, or embedded as part of a bachelor’s degree. Honours may provide you with a competitive edge in the job market or a pathway into a higher degree.

International Baccalaureate (IB)
The International Baccalaureate (IB) diploma is an internationally recognised, comprehensive two-year study program designed for university entrance. Deakin University accepts IB diploma graduates as having satisfied the requirements for university entry. For detailed information, visit www.ibo.org.

Level
The year level at which units in your course are studied. Level 1 is equivalent to your first year of full-time study, level 2 is equivalent to your second year of full-time study, and so on. You can usually tell what level a unit is by looking at the first number in a unit’s code.

Major
An approved group of at least 6 (and up to 8) credit points of related units, normally taken in sequence at each level of a course.

Online learning
Online learning enables you to learn 24/7, wherever you are, at the Cloud Campus. At Deakin, students can choose to study some units online, or to study a course wholly online, if the option is available to them.

When you study at the Cloud Campus, you undertake the same courses and units as students do at a physical Deakin campus, participating in online classes and seminars.

Note that students who choose online learning will generally need to attend examinations at Deakin campuses or other specified locations.

Pathways
Pathways provide alternative entry options for getting into a course at Deakin if you do not meet the requirements for entry. Pathways to Deakin courses can include options such as TAFE courses or starting your course at a different campus. See deakin.edu.au/courses/entry-pathways.

Postgraduate degree
A course of study usually beyond bachelor’s level, including graduate certificate, graduate diploma, master’s and research degree. In many cases, eligibility for entry to a postgraduate course requires you to have completed an undergraduate degree and/or have significant work experience.

Prerequisites
The VCE subjects or other requirements that current Year 12 and non-Year 12 applicants must complete to be eligible for selection into a course. Information about prerequisites is listed in this guide from page 20, on the VTAC website (vtac.edu.au) and in Victorian Tertiary Entrance Requirements (VTER) publications.

Scholarships
Deakin offers a range of scholarships for commencing students that recognise and reward many accomplishments, from leadership skills to academic success, extracurricular achievements and commitment to study during personal hardship. For more details, visit deakin.edu.au/scholarships.

Semester
This is the method of organising some courses in the Faculty of Health. Semester 1 runs from February to June; Semester 2 runs from July to November.

Seminars
A class where a small group of students discuss study materials and ideas with a tutor. Traditionally known as tutorial.

Single unit (non-award) study
Single unit (non-award) study provides access to a wide variety of university-level units, without students having to study a full degree. Some units have prerequisites or special requirements but most are open to all potential students. For more information, please visit deakin.edu.au/courses/how-to-apply/single-unit.

Special Entry Access Scheme (SEAS)
SEAS is an umbrella program of special entry schemes governed by VTAC, and conducted by participating tertiary institutions, including Deakin, that provides entry for the disadvantaged into undergraduate courses. For more information, visit vtac.edu.au. For more information on Deakin’s Access and Equity Program, please visit deakin.edu.au/access-equality.

Special Tertiary Admissions Test (STAT)
STAT is a test developed by the Australian Council for Educational Research (ACER). The purpose of the STAT is to assess an individual’s ability to analyse information and think critically. The STAT is compulsory for non-Year 12 applicants applying for entry into any of Deakin University’s undergraduate law programs.
