

This regulation is made pursuant to Statute 3.1 – Officers and Staff of the University.

In this regulation:

“Retired Professor” means a professor’s cessation of employment with the University in circumstances where the Council is satisfied that the professor is unlikely to re-enter the academic workforce by accepting a substantive academic position with another University within Australia.

1. Council may, on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor, appoint such persons as it sees fit to the rank and title of professor in addition to those persons appointed as professors by virtue of office pursuant to university statutes and university regulations.
2. Council may confer the title of Emeritus Professor upon any Retired Professor of the University in recognition of distinguished academic service to his or her discipline and/or to the University.
3. An Emeritus Professor shall, for all purposes of courtesy and on ceremonial occasions, be regarded as a professor of the University but shall not be a member of the Academic Board or a member of any Faculty Board.
4. The title Emeritus Professor shall be conferred in accordance with criteria and process set out in the policies and procedures of the University.

Approved by Council on 11 December 2008 and incorporating all amendments to 20 September 2011.
