

DLS Reported Research February 2023

Recent Publications

Books

PJ Badenhorst and HM Van den Berg Rights to Minerals and Petroleum in South Africa: An introduction (Jutas) 2022

Book Chapters

C1: Articles

Matthew Groves, 'Standing, Business Competitors and Judicial Review' (2023) 50(5) Australian Business Law Review 315-339

Other Research Activities

Conference and seminar presentations

Vicki Huang, 'Shape Trade Marks and Footwear in Australia', Fashion Law Roundtable, National University Singapore, 6 Jan 2023.

Vicki Huang, 'Patents and Gender', Fifth IP & Innovation Researchers of Asia Conference, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore, 1 - 3 March 2023 (hybrid, online)

Jean Du Plessis and Beth Nosworthy (University of Adelaide), "Sustainability: Long-term Sustainable Growth as a Focus for Corporate Governance Theory", Society of Corporate Law Academics (SCoLA) Annual Conference, 5-7 February, Swinburne University of Technology

Jean du Plessis and Neels Kilian (Faculty of Law, North-West University, South Africa), "Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) Reporting: History and Recent Developments regarding 'Greenwashing' in Australia and South Africa". Society of Corporate Law Academics (SCoLA) Annual Conference, 5-7 February, Swinburne University of Technology

Paulina Fishman "The Power to Alter Corporate Rescue in Australia." Society of Corporate Law Academics (SCoLA) Annual Conference, 5-7 February, Swinburne University of Technology

Zehra Kavame Eroglu “‘Fees for No Service’ and Corporate Governance Failures in the Financial Services and Banking Industry” Society of Corporate Law Academics (SCoLA) Annual Conference, 5-7 February, Swinburne University of Technology

Isa Alade and Zehra Kavame Eroglu, “Disruptive Innovations or Enhancing Financial Inclusion: What Does Fintech Mean for Africa?” Society of Corporate Law Academics (SCoLA) Annual Conference, 5-7 February, Swinburne University of Technology

Tamsin Phillipa Paige, ‘The Importance of Storytelling to International Law’ (Essex Law School Public International Law Lecture Series, 13 February 2023) <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9d6HNxMiQek>

Felicity Gerry and Matthew Dyson, ‘The Best Way to Develop the Law on Complicity AKA “Joint Enterprise”’ (Webinar, Libertas Chambers, 23 February 2023).

Felicity Gerry, ‘The Continuing injustices of “Joint Enterprise” law and policy’ (Speech, House of Commons launch of the Future of Justice Project, 21 February 2023).

Felicity Gerry et al, ‘Vulnerable Women, Crisis Pregnancies and the Criminal Law’ (Speech, House of Lords, 21 February 2023).

Jayson Lamchek ‘Towards a Redistributive Human Rights Agenda for Data Science’ in the panel with Fleur Johns, Caroline Compton, Cait Storr and David Nelken at the Digital Humanitarianism workshop, UNSW Sydney, Feb. 23, 2023.

Media appearances

Neera Bhatia, Live radio interview on legal and ethical implications of cryonics – ABC Goulburn Murray Breakfast with Sandra Moon, Thursday 9 Feb 2023

Neera Bhatia interview with Penny Burfitt and Sam Robinson, “ Inside Philip Rhoades' bid to be frozen in a new Australian cryonics facility”, ABC News (Online) Tuesday 14 Feb 2023

Neera Bhatia – Live radio interview with Kia Handley - “Ethical issues concerning cryonics” ABC Newcastle, Wed 15 Feb 2023

Paulina Fishman, Spoke on episode 75 of Hearsay: The Legal Podcast hosted by David Turner, titled “Debased and Abused: Improper Uses of Part 5.3A of the Corporations Act”, recorded on 28 October 2022 but published on 3 February 2023 (promoted here);

Other publications and research related activities

Isa Alade and Zehra Kavame Eroglu, won the Best Paper price for “Disruptive Innovations or Enhancing Financial Inclusion: What Does Fintech Mean for Africa?” Society of Corporate Law Academics (SCoLA) Annual Conference, 5-7 February, Swinburne University of Technology

Deakin University CRICOS Provider Code: 00113B

Deakin Law School
Faculty of Business and Law
Melbourne Burwood Campus, 221 Burwood Highway, Burwood, VIC 3125