Inspire the next generation

If you're motivated to teach, you've got the power to make a huge difference to young people's lives. Our education and teaching courses are ranked #5¹ in the world and #1 in Australia for education and educational research, focusing on leadership, communication and organisational skills – ensuring you graduate as a capable leader in the classroom.

¹ U.S. News & World Report, Best Global Universities Subject Rankings, 2022–2023.

#1 in Australia

Deakin University is ranked #1 in Australia for education and educational research.¹

#5 in the world

Deakin University is ranked #5 in the world for education and educational research.¹

Acknowledgement of Country

Deakin University acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of all the unceded lands, skies and waterways on which Deakin students, staff and communities come together. As we learn and teach through virtually and physically constructed places across time, we pay our deep respect to the Ancestors and Elders of Wadawurrung Country, Eastern Maar Country and Wurundjeri Country, where our physical campuses are located. We also acknowledge the many First Nations from where students join us online and make vital contributions to our learning communities.

Your future in education and teaching

Get a world-class education

Deakin is ranked among the top five universities in Australia for its education courses, based on the 2022 QS World University Rankings by Subject, which are informed by academic and employer reputation, as well as research impact. What's more, Deakin is ranked #1 in Australia and #5 globally for education by the US News & World Report 2022, regarded as a global authority in education rankings. So when you choose Deakin, you can be confident you're securing a world-class education – and a bright future.

Learn from the best

We maintain close links with the education sector to ensure our courses are developed and reviewed with industry and professional input. You'll be taught by staff members with industry experience, recognised as leaders and innovators in their fields – so you can be confident that what you learn at Deakin will be relevant to your teaching career.

Get job-ready with our dedicated Professional Experience Program

Every Deakin teaching student's course experience is enriched by the Professional Experience Program. Working with more than 1400 schools and over 500 early childhood settings across Australia, a dedicated team will help you find the right placements based on your teaching areas, residential location and mode of transport.

We'll arrange at least 60 days of professional experience placements for you in schools or early childhood settings where you'll learn from experienced teachers. On campus, you'll have access to specialised teaching spaces to further prepare you for the classroom, including the state-of-the-art, immersive and interactive Nyaal learning precinct in Geelong. Here, you can experience different classroom environments virtually in a 360-degree-theatre.

Deakin also participates in the Victorian State Government supported teaching academies and alliances program. Our alliance partners provide pre-service teachers with placement opportunities in local schools – with some placements exclusive to Deakin students.

Your future in education and teaching

Join a booming industry

The education and training industry is one of the largest growing industries in Australia, and is projected to expand by 13.4% by November 2026 – that's 149,600 new jobs. There is also significant demand for early childhood teachers, with the workforce set to increase by 21.6% by 2026.¹

¹ 2021 Employment Projections to 2026, Jobs and Skills Australia.

Professional recognition

As a Deakin teaching graduate, you will be ready to step straight into your dream role. All of our education courses are accredited by the Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT). Plus, our Bachelor of Early Childhood Education and Bachelor of Early Childhood and Primary Education are accredited by the Australian Children's Education and Care Quality Authority (ACECQA).

Intercultural teaching experience

Gain an international perspective on teaching by undertaking your professional experience overseas through our Global Education Program, a teaching practicum that develops a range of teaching and learning approaches in a range of exciting destinations. These locations can change year to year. Recent opportunities have included placements in Chile, Nepal, Switzerland or Vanuatu.

You can also broaden your understanding of intercultural education here in Australia. We have a strong commitment to Indigenous teacher education and run a Global Education Program in Australia's Northern Territory.

Be rewarded for your hard work

A Deakin scholarship is more than just a financial boost. It is our chance to acknowledge your accomplishments and reward your hard work, setting you on the path to success at university. Our extensive scholarship program includes three key scholarships:

- Vice-Chancellor's Academic Excellence Scholarship
- Deakin Scholarship for Excellence
- Deakin Student Support Scholarship.

We also offer a range of donor- and government-funded scholarships, including up to $18,000 as part of the support provided by the Victorian Government to become a secondary teacher. Each is unique with differing criteria and eligibility, rewarding aspiring students from diverse backgrounds.

Skills to get you a job

At Deakin, every course is shaped by industry experts, ensuring you'll graduate with real-world expertise and practical skills – giving you a competitive edge in the workplace. Secure your future today at Victoria's #1 university for teaching quality¹ and overall educational experience.¹

¹ 2021 Student Experience Survey, Quality Indicators for Learning and Teaching (QILT).

'We co-design our teaching and professional learning programs in ways that are practical and responsive to the contemporary challenges facing educators, educational leaders and systems. This requires new and fresh thinking and the affordances of innovative digital technology.'

What is the Casper test?

If you're applying to one of the following Deakin courses, you'll need to sit a Casper test to demonstrate your suitability for a teaching career:

- Bachelor of Early Childhood and Primary Education
- Bachelor of Education (Primary)
- Bachelor of Health and Physical Education
- Bachelor of Arts/Master of Teaching (Secondary)
- Bachelor of Science/Master of Teaching (Secondary)
- Master of Applied Learning and Teaching (Secondary)
- Master of Teaching (excluding Early Childhood).

If you're enrolled in the Bachelor of Arts/Master of Teaching (Secondary) or Bachelor of Science/Master of Teaching (Secondary), you'll need to complete the Casper test in the final trimester of the undergraduate component of your combined degree.

Casper (Computer-based Assessment for Sampling Personal Characteristics) is an online, video scenario-based situational judgement test, assessing a number of non-academic attributes including communication, ethics, empathy, motivation and professionalism.

All institutions offering initial teacher education courses need to select their students based on academic and non-academic criteria – so you'll need to sit a Casper test to be eligible for selection, no matter where you choose to study.

Deakin covers your Casper test fee

If you're enrolled to start studies from 2024 in an initial teacher education degree, and the Casper test is an entry requirement of your course, we'll cover the test fee with an $80 payment to you. You do not need to apply for the payment. Deakin will identify and communicate with you at the point of admission.

For more information, dates and sample test content, visit deakin.edu.au/casper.

The Deakin Guaranteed ATAR

We are providing lower guaranteed ATARs for eligible Australian Year 12 students, for most undergraduate courses. This will provide you with more certainty, reduce stress and ultimately give you a greater opportunity to get into the course you really want.

To be eligible for the program, you will need to meet at least one of the following criteria, preference Deakin and submit a SEAS application through VTAC:

- attend a Deakin under-represented school
- live or study in a regional or remote location, or
- be of Indigenous Australian descent.

NIKERI Institute

Deakin is committed to helping students from all backgrounds and locations achieve their dreams of shaping the next generation. That's why the National Indigenous Knowledges, Education, Research and Innovation (NIKERI) Institute provides flexibly structured courses to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students from all across Australia. Our fully accredited Bachelor of Education (Primary), Bachelor of Early Childhood Education and Bachelor of Early Childhood and Primary Education courses are offered through Community Based Delivery – where community teaches community in a supported environment, through a mix of online learning and on-campus experiences.

Indigenous Studies

Deakin also prioritises Indigenous Knowledges and offers all students the chance to enrich their understandings of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples' ways of Valuing, Being, Knowing and Doing. Taken as an elective in any course, these units promote co-contributions to positive reconciliation efforts alongside Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples.

If you're passionate about children's education, Deakin's Bachelor of Early Childhood and Primary Education opens the door to a range of inspiring career opportunities. Spanning the early childhood and primary education sectors, our dual-accredited degree focuses on contemporary issues in children's learning and development, curriculum theories and pedagogies, discipline knowledge and the changing teaching and learning context within early childhood and primary education.

Careers

In both early childhood and primary school education settings there is a strong demand for qualified teachers and graduate starting salaries for teachers are high compared to the graduate average.

As a graduate of this course you may find employment as a teacher within the private or public education sectors, or in a range of other education related fields including:

- consultancy
- NGOs
- policy
- research or community-based organisations.

Professional recognition

This course is accredited with the Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT) as an initial teacher education program against the Australian Institute of Teaching and School Leadership (AITSL) program standards and the Australian professional standards for graduate teachers.

This program is also accredited with the Australian Children's Education and Care Quality Authority (ACECQA) as an early childhood teaching qualification in Australia.

Graduates of this course will be eligible to register with the VIT. Graduates who are intending to apply for registration interstate may be required to provide further information. Applicants are advised to check the registration requirements in their state or territory carefully.

Professional experience

You'll undertake 115 days of professional placements through Deakin's Professional Experience Program in early childhood education and care settings, and primary schools where you'll learn from experienced teachers. Through this program you'll not only gain key practical knowledge and skills, but invaluable insight into the classroom environment.

Flexible study options

Are you unsure whether to choose between Deakin's Bachelor of Early Childhood or Bachelor of Early Childhood and Primary Education degree, or concerned you won't meet the requirements for the dual degree? Deakin's two early childhood degrees have been structured in a way that allows you to seamlessly transfer between the two courses¹ to get the most out of your career.

¹ Subject to meeting Weighted Average Mark (WAM) requirements and successful completion of the Casper test.

Begin your journey to becoming a teacher by studying an Associate Degree of Education at Deakin. You'll complete core units from the Bachelor of Education (Primary) and develop the foundation skills required to succeed at university.

Whether you're looking to forge a path in education, have never studied at university, or you're not sure if you meet the entry requirements, this degree is for you. It is designed to introduce you to what it's like to study at Deakin and to set you on the pathway to becoming a teacher.

Careers

Graduates will be on track to step into one of Deakin's undergraduate teaching degrees to become a fully registered teacher, provided they successfully complete the Casper test.

An associate degree equips you with the skills to succeed at both university and in your future career. Graduates find employment opportunities in a range of fields, including:

- education
- government departments
- health sector
- media
- private academies/agencies
- public service.

Combine your passion for the arts with a desire to inspire the generations of tomorrow, with a Bachelor of Arts/Master of Teaching (Secondary) at Deakin. Our school-based learning programs and professional learning placements ensure you're ready to teach today and into the future. Fast-track your studies and graduate with two versatile degrees, including a postgraduate teaching degree, in just four years. The 14 arts majors on offer, including history, media studies, performing arts and politics, complement your teaching expertise while diversifying your career options.

Professional recognition

This Bachelor of Arts/Master of Teaching (Secondary) is a fast-tracked course which fulfils the academic requirements to practise as an Australian teacher. This nationally accredited course allows you to apply for registration with the Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT) upon completion. Those interested in applying for interstate registration are advised to check their state or territory requirements carefully.

Professional experience

This course includes 60 days of supervised professional experience placements in schools, where you'll learn from experienced teachers. You might also have the opportunity to undertake a work placement in international or remote Northern Territory settings through our Global Education Program.

Careers

Teaching courses at Deakin lead to a career that can make a profound and lasting contribution to the future by positively educating and influencing the lives of students. It's a rewarding career that offers creativity, flexibility and opportunity.

Graduates of the Bachelor of Arts/Master of Teaching (Secondary) are qualified to teach in secondary schools within Victoria, in the private, independent or public education sectors.

Your specialisations and advanced knowledge will also open doors to roles in community services, government agencies and not-for-profit organisations.

Majors and teaching methods

Alongside core education studies, you will complete two majors to support your learning towards your teaching methods in the Master of Teaching. Choose from:

- one of Anthropology, Philosophy, Politics and policy studies, or Sociology
- one of English – Children's Literature or English – Literature
- one of Arabic, Chinese, Indonesian or Spanish
- History
- Media studies
- Performing arts
- Visual arts and photography.

You will also choose four electives selected from another Arts major discipline listed above.

'I have a love for both history and literature, and I want to pass on these passions to other people and help them learn to appreciate the subjects they cover. Teaching seemed a natural way for me to engage and connect with learners and provide support for those who may struggle to understand the topics.'

The Master of Teaching is a teaching qualification in early childhood, primary or secondary teaching, and gives you the option of a dual qualification in early childhood and primary or in primary and secondary.

These courses offer extensive practical experience, preparing you for an in-demand career in education. Students undertaking the single strand courses in early childhood, primary or secondary, have the option of taking an additional four units in a specialisation pathway or internship.

Professional recognition

The Master of Teaching suite of courses are professionally recognised courses and have been accredited and endorsed by the Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT) and the Australian Children's Education and Care Quality Authority (ACECQA) since 2011. Graduates who intend to apply for registration interstate may be required to provide further information. Applicants are advised to check the registration requirements in their state or territory.

Professional experience

Professional teaching experiences throughout your course ensure you have the practical experience you need to launch into your teaching career. Professional experience placements are undertaken in approved schools and early childhood settings (where appropriate) within Australia.

Careers

There is a strong demand for qualified teachers and graduate starting salaries are high compared to the graduate average. The increased demand for teachers has also resulted in improvements in teaching conditions, resources and career advancement opportunities. As a graduate of this course, you may find employment as a teacher within the private, independent or public education sectors. Opportunities also exist in government agencies, community services or not-for-profit organisations.
