

Pathways to general registration as a psychologist

3 years
Bachelor of Psychological Science

4 years
Bachelor of Psychology (Honours)

1 year
Bachelor of Psychological Science (Honours)
OR
Graduate Diploma of Psychology (Advanced)

Apply for provisional registration with the Psychology Board of Australia and associate membership of the Australian Psychological Society.

Complete a masters degree or doctorate that includes work placement.
Click on the following Deakin postgraduate courses to find out more about them:
Master of Psychology (Clinical)
Master of Psychology (Organisational)
Master of Professional Psychology - plus one year of supervised training
Doctor of Psychology (Clinical)

Apply for general registration with the Psychology Board of Australia and full membership of the Australian Psychological Society.
Once general registration is granted, you will be eligible to work as a registered psychologist.

The following Deakin degrees also include a 3 year psychology sequence:

- Bachelor of Arts (Psychology)¹
- Bachelor of Health Sciences¹
- Bachelor of Criminology/Bachelor of Psychological Science²
- Bachelor of Nursing/Bachelor of Psychological Science²
- Bachelor of Health Sciences/Bachelor of Arts¹
- Bachelor of Human Resources Management (Psychology)
- Bachelor of Marketing (Psychology)
- Graduate Diploma of Psychological Science³

¹ Students must select the 10-credit-point major in psychology.

² The duration of this double degree is 4 years.

³ The duration of this course is 1.25 years. You must have completed an undergraduate degree qualification (from a discipline other than psychology) to gain entry into this course.