Career Practitioners’ Seminar 2019 – review

We would like to extend a huge thank you to all who attended our recent Career Practitioners’ Seminar on Thursday 21 February.

The theme for the day was ‘Be Ready’ which highlights the inspiring outcome of a Deakin education and the many ways we are preparing our students for career success. This included a presentation from John Devereaux, Executive Director, Deakin Student Life on our tailored student support services and the impact these have on a student’s overall university experience. Our support services are a key contributor to Deakin continuing to be the #1 university in Victoria for student satisfaction. Attendees also heard from Cr Jake Keogh, a current Deakin student and Elly McLean, a recent Deakin alumni on how Deakin has enabled them to take on their career with confidence. Attendees also explored our Melbourne Burwood Campus in a range of interactive and engaging workshops that showcased many of the state-of-the-art facilities available to students.

Year level: 10–12

Deakin University's Geelong Waurm Ponds Campus

RSVP: 18 March (including your name and dietary requirements) to artsed-marketing@deakin.edu.au.

Please forward this invite to Indonesian teachers and students currently studying Indonesian.

Deakin Course Innovation Group

The Market Insights Unit would like to invite Career practitioners to join the new Deakin Course Innovation Group. This is a forum that will enable you to provide feedback to on our new and existing course offerings to allow the views of you and your students to be considered at this critical development phase. Depending on the nature of the question your response could take the form of a short survey, phone interview or focus group. It is envisaged the time commitment will be minimal.

If this is something you are interested in being involved with you can register here.

NextGen career practitioner information session

Wednesday 1 May

1.30–3.00pm

Burwood Corporate Centre,

Melbourne Burwood Campus

Deakin Business School has partnered with illuminate Education, an entrepreneurship education organisation to sponsor the Nextgen program. This program is aligned to the Australian curriculum and encourages students to work through an issue that is relevant to their community and the world within a business framework. It develops the student's skills in:

- communication – speaking, writing and presentation skills
- understanding – critical thinking, inquiry, digital and financial literacy
- solving problems – creativity, problem solving and reflection
- working smart – collaboration, organisation and perseverance.

The Nextgen Challenge is delivered across secondary schools in Victoria. The founder of illuminate Education Adam Mostogl (2015 Tasmanian Young Australian of the Year, 2017 Top 30 Under 30 Australian Entrepreneurs) will be hosting a session for all career practitioners to learn more about the challenge and how it can positively impact your students. To register please contact Natalie De Bartolo at bl-recruitment@deakin.edu.au

Student experience

We have updated our SEBE Outreach programs for 2019! These programs have been designed to give secondary school students the opportunity to experience a wide range of interactive, hands-on activities and workshops across our five study areas.

Please visit deakin.edu.au/sebe/outreach for further information and to register your interest. This year, we have also redesigned the SEBE Outreach booklet! You will receive a copy in the next Career Practitioners mail out.

If you would like further information about our outreach programs and activities or would like to enquire about taking part, please contact us at sebe-outreach@deakin.edu.au.

New psychology majors

The Faculty of Health have recently added three new majors to our Bachelor of Psychological Science (H344) which will be available for students to study from Trimester 2, 2019 across all campuses:

- forensic studies
- child and family
- organisational studies

These are all psychology specific majors taught from within the School of Psychology, and are unique in the Victorian undergraduate market. The majors give students the perfect opportunity to specialise in an area of interest during their studies in psychology.

Deakin International

Deakin is proud to welcome students from more than 130 countries around the world!

Our fastest growing courses for international VCE students are: commerce, construction management, biomedical science, engineering, nursing and media and communications.

Direct entry English language pathways are available at Deakin University English Language Institute (DUELI) for students entering all Deakin College and Deakin University courses.

Your friendly onshore international team are here to assist with enquiries, information, event support and more. Contact us anytime to discuss your international students' future options:
