

This Statute is made pursuant to section 28 of the Deakin University Act 2009.

1. The Council may make, amend or revoke regulations prescribing or providing for:
  - (a) eligibility for admission to the University;
  - (b) selection into courses;
  - (c) enrolment;
  - (d) or any other matter for which it is necessary or expedient to prescribe or provide for the purposes of this Statute.
2. The Academic Board will:
  - (a) make policies and procedures to facilitate admission, selection and enrolment;
  - (b) determine the requirements for eligibility for admission to the University; and
  - (c) approve rules of selection into Higher Education courses and Vocational Education and Training courses.
3. Admission, selection and enrolment will be conducted in accordance with the legislation, policies, procedures and rules of the University.
4. An applicant who meets the admission requirements of the University and any course specific requirements may:
  - (a) be selected into a course leading to an award of the University; and
  - (b) if selected or offered a place, enrol in that course leading to an award of the University.
5. A person who is permitted to enrol in a course shall, upon enrolment:
  - (a) become a student of the University; and
  - (b) be bound by the Statutes, regulations, policies and procedures of the University as amended from time to time.
6. Regulations made under this Statute will come into effect when promulgated by being displayed on the University's official notice board.

Approved by Minister for Skills and Workforce Participation on 17 November 2008.
