Hopkins View

Warrnambool's on campus accommodation is the perfect way to attend university whilst experiencing the peace and quiet of regional Victoria! Leisurely morning walks or a fish before class are the norm as you will be living on the banks of the pristine Hopkins River only minutes from your classroom.

Deakin Warrnambool is superbly located on the Great Ocean Road, 5 minutes from local surf beaches and a 2 hour drive to Geelong or the Grampians! Day trips to explore nearby coastal attractions, beaches and the local national parks are all possible for students living in Warrnambool! Whale watching is at your door step from June to September and a visit to Middle Island to see the Mareema's guarding the penguins a highlight of our town. The convenience of Sherwood Park train station located on our campus gives Warrnambool students the opportunity and flexibility to travel to Melbourne or Geelong for a city experience whenever they choose.

Immerse yourself into campus life and take advantage of our residential support services and exclusive residential programs.

"The community here is remarkable and everybody makes sure you feel comfortable in an unfamiliar setting. The landscape is beautiful, you're within 15 minutes to the ocean, and every type of Aussie animal you can think of! Although my true home is an 18 hour flight away, I'm home here."
- Jack Ellermets, USA
