

Alternative Standard to the Literacy and Numeracy Test for Initial Teacher Education (LANTITE): First Nations Language Proficiency

This form is for Deakin University initial teacher education students to evidence their proficiency in a First Nations Language, as an alternative standard to successful completion of the LANTITE.

Student Details

Student ID:	<input type="text"/>
Student Name:	<input type="text"/>
Student Signature:	<input type="text"/>
Program Enrolled:	<input type="text"/>

Confirm First Nations language proficiency by completing one of the following options (e.g. either 1 or 2). Once complete, submit your form to: lantite@deakin.edu.au

Option 1.

Confirmation from an appropriate authority (Land Council, incorporated Indigenous organisation, Indigenous Elder, Respected Person or Knowledge Holder) stating the First Nations language in which the student is proficient. To meet this option, ensure all parts of this section below are completed by the relevant authority.

Language name/clan group: _____

Relevant Land Council/Organisation/Elder/Respected Person/Knowledge Holder: _____

_____]

Statement: I confirm that [student: _____]

is proficient in [language: _____]

Signature OR Land Council/Organisation seal : _____

Print name and role/position: _____]

Date: _____

Option 2.

Formal qualification* in a First Nations language. To meet this option, identify the language in the section below and attach to this form a certified copy of your formal qualification.

Language name/clan group:

Formal qualification from AQF Level 3 (Certificate III) or above.*

Privacy:

Deakin University (Deakin) is collecting your personal information for the primary purpose of understanding your proficiency in a First Nations language. Deakin is required to collect this information as set out by the revised national LANTITE requirements (National Program Standard 3.5) from the Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership (AITSL). Deakin will use this information to document your completion of this requirement in Deakin's student management system and may use the information to communicate with you, if required.

Deakin may share your personal information with relevant Government departments and/or agencies to confirm your exemption from the LANTITE or where required by law. Deakin will also use your personal information for record keeping and legal compliance purposes. You are not required to provide the information requested, however, if the information is not provided, Deakin may not be able to confirm your exemption from the LANTITE.

Deakin collects, uses, discloses, and manages personal information it holds, including requests by individuals for access to their personal information in accordance with the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 (Vic) and the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic). Further information about Deakin's privacy practices is available at <http://www.deakin.edu.au/footer/privacy>