GLOSSARY OF TERMS

Units

Individual subjects or courses that make up a degree.

Credit points

The amount of credit given to each unit. The majority of Deakin units are worth 1 credit point.

Unit code

The three-letter and three-number code in front of the unit name e.g. SRD263.

Assessment

Method used to measure a student's progression e.g. assignments and exams. Result of the assessment is the basis of the grade awarded to the student.

Lecture

Large class which introduces topics for discussion and recommended reading related to a specific unit.

Tutorial

Smaller class used to discuss in detail topics raised in lectures.

Undergraduate

The term given to studies undertaken at bachelors level, also known as a first degree.

Postgraduate

The term given to studies undertaken at masters level, also known as a second degree.

EXCHANGE OR STUDY ABROAD - WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

Exchange

If you are enrolled at one of Deakin's designated exchange partners, you are eligible to come to Deakin as an exchange student. You can study for one trimester or a full academic year, and receive credit towards your home degree. To qualify as an exchange student, you will need to be nominated by your home university. Exchange programs are run on a reciprocal basis, so you will continue to pay your tuition and student activity fees at your home university, rather than paying tuition fees to Deakin.

Study abroad

Study abroad programs are available if your institution does not have an exchange agreement with Deakin or an exchange place is not available. Study abroad students can study for a trimester or a full academic year at Deakin, and are normally required to pay upfront tuition fees to Deakin. Throughout this guide you will see the term study abroad used for both study abroad and exchange programs.

Trimesters

Deakin University uses a trimester system, which is equivalent in course load and duration to the previous semester system. Two trimesters are still equal to a full academic year.

'The friendly Australian atmosphere can be found everywhere at Deakin and is like a cherry on top of this already awesome Exchange cake.'

Deakin not only offers a platform for your academic ambitions, but also feels homely and introduces you to concepts and cultures which could have been previously outside of your comfort zone.

It is truly fantastic to share a class with people who grew up on different continents in completely different cultural contexts. They view and challenge your ideas and put them into a wider perspective.

I didn't expect the amount of attention and care that students are given by the lecturers and support staff. When I wanted to apply for jobs, I got all this great help from the careers office where they walked me through the process of adjusting my resume towards Australian standards.

The friendly Australian atmosphere can be found everywhere at Deakin and is like a cherry on top of this already awesome exchange cake.

MONEY MATTERS

Fees

Students applying directly to Deakin University are required to pay:

- tuition fee of A$8700 per trimester (2013 fee). Please check the web for 2013 tuition fees.
- Overseas Student Health Cover charge of A$200 per trimester or A$400 per year (2012 single rate). Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) is a compulsory fee covering basic medical and hospital care. Students are advised to check what the OSHC includes at www.oshcworldcare.com.au. More information on fees is available on www.deakin.edu.au/future-students/international/study-abroad/fees.php.

The tuition fee does not include accommodation, travel, books and general living costs. The study abroad tuition fee is a flat fee regardless of the number of units taken. Fees must be paid before a student visa can be issued. Students are advised to read Deakin's Fees and Refund Policy at www.deakin.edu.au/future-students/international/fee-policies.php.

Employment

During the trimester, study abroad students are permitted to work a maximum of 40 hours per fortnight. There is no limit on the number of hours you can work when the University is not in session, provided it does not interfere with your studies and you are not enrolled in Trimester 3. However, you should be aware that work may not be readily available and you should not depend on this form of income for support. Your right to work is included as part of your student visa.

As visa regulations are subject to change, we recommend you refer to the Department of Immigration and Citizenship website www.immi.gov.au for detailed and up-to-date information.

Living costs

For information on living costs in Australia, please visit <http://studyinaustralia.gov.au/sia/en/studycosts/livingcosts>.

'Deakin provided me with an excellent educational and academic program as well as a stimulating and hospitable environment.'

My experience at Deakin was honestly the best time of my life. I made friends who have since turned into family and had the opportunity to experience a new culture.

I also got to learn about American history and politics from an Australian perspective, which was very interesting. As a history major, concentrating in American studies, I am always curious to know what other people think about America, and it was an eye-opening and insightful experience for me.

I have recommended Deakin to my friends numerous times! Deakin provided me with an excellent educational and academic program as well as a stimulating and hospitable environment.

STUDYING AT DEAKIN

Deakin Courses

Study abroad students are enrolled as regular Deakin students, undertaking classes with Australian students. Deakin University degrees are made up of individual units (these are commonly called courses in North America), which are generally intended to be undertaken in specific years of a degree. In a Deakin undergraduate degree of three years' duration, studies are taken at three levels: first year (100 level), second year (200 level) and third year (300 level), generally equivalent to second, third and fourth year of a US degree. Some Deakin degrees are longer in duration, such as, engineering, architecture and law, and will be studied over four or five years. Exchange and study abroad students in postgraduate degrees can also enrol in Deakin units from level 700.

Most units (above first-year introductory units) have prerequisites which must be satisfied before admission will be approved. If you apply for admission to a unit that has prerequisites, Deakin faculties will look at your academic record to determine whether you have passed units comparable in content to Deakin prerequisites. Consequently, it is not advisable to apply for admission to an advanced level unit with prerequisites (i.e. 200 or 300 level) if you have no academic background in that discipline.

Teaching methods and assessment

The Australian academic system is based upon the UK system. There is a range of teaching methods depending on your discipline of study. You will generally have a combination of lecture and tutorial classes. Lectures can vary in size from 35 to 200 students; tutorial classes are much smaller and allow for open discussion of issues raised in lectures. Depending on your discipline you may undertake laboratory classes. Fieldwork also forms a large part of some units of study. The formal contact hours vary across units, however great emphasis is placed upon independent study outside of class contact hours

Assessment and grading

Final grades are based on assessment of written work, tests undertaken throughout trimester, participation in class or laboratory attendance and final examinations. Most, but not all, undergraduate units involve an examination usually held at the end of the unit. The weighting applied to each assessment procedure varies from unit to unit, however your examination may be worth up to 70 percent of your final grade. Please check each unit to see the weighting of assessments.

Credit transfer

An official Deakin academic transcript will be issued upon the completion of your Study Abroad Program. This transcript will usually be sent to the address you nominate in the Study Abroad Application Form. For ease of credit transfer, you should arrange approval of Deakin units with your home institution prior to arrival in Australia and it is highly recommended you check with your home institution the amount of credit you will have transferred to your home degree.

Study load

Study abroad students must enrol in a fulltime load of 3–4 credit points per trimester. One Deakin credit is equivalent to 7.5 ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System) credits. Most units have a weighting of 1 credit point which means you should take 3–4 units (courses). As the Study Abroad tuition fee is a fixed fee, it remains the same regardless of the number of units taken.

D (Distinction)
70 – 79%
C (Credit)

'I made friends that I ended up travelling with all over Australia, including scuba diving with them at the Great Barrier Reef. The beach welcome trip opened every door possible for me to have the experience of a lifetime.'

I loved everything about my experience at Deakin. Every teacher knew my name, and everyone else's in the class as well. In every class, we were always learning hands-on whether it was out in the field or in a lab. The beach welcome trip was awesome. I met so many friends and remember every moment of it.

Deakin allowed me to make everlasting friendships all the way on the opposite side of the world. I continue to talk to my roommates almost every day. I know I will end up back in Australia one day - it's my second home with my second family. Everyone at Deakin was so generous in helping me with whatever I needed whether it was going to the food store, or taking me to their home to have a home cooked meal. The way the classes were taught made me learn so much on top of what I have learnt here in New York.

I honestly did not expect to have such an amazing experience as I did. I did not expect Deakin to be so meticulous in making sure I had the best time as I could have. Deakin set up a beach welcome trip which was the best orientation ever, I was personally invited to a memorial at Flagstaff Hill in Warrnambool where I received a 'Welcome to Warrnambool' certificate and had my picture in the newspaper. To tie the bow on my experience, Deakin even set up a farewell dinner for all international students, where we received awards and souvenirs. I have never felt so famous.

When I tell people about my experience, my face glows, I get tears in my eyes, and say I would do it over and over again. It is worth the experience you gain and the different person you become. Maybe you don't become a different person; you just find who you truly are at Deakin.

MARINE BIOLOGY FIELDTRIPS

As part of your studies in Marine Biology at Deakin, there are some fantastic opportunities for hands-on experiences in the field and lab, offered through intensive fieldtrip study modes, including the three below. Many of the other units on offer across all trimesters also have field and laboratory practical experiences to offer.

Combined field course: Marine Biology, SLE255 and Human Impacts on Marine Ecosystems, SLE263

Compulsory, Pre-trimester, five-day intensive

25 February-1 March

This five-day fieldtrip allows you to explore the incredible diversity of marine animals and plants that occur in South-West Victoria (a biodiversity hotspot), their identification and the ways they are adapted to particular habitats. We will encourage you to begin to think like marine biologists and equip you with the skills to do so. You will also be introduced to the functioning of marine ecosystems and the links between the biota and their physical environment.

Marine and Coastal Environmental Interpretation, SLE162*

Late November, Warrnambool workshop

18-22 November

This unit runs in intensive mode with hands-on workshops and field-based activities that allow you to explore ways to communicate your experiences and passions for the marine and coastal environment to different audiences through a variety of media. There will be some pre- and post-intensive work to be completed.

For SLE350 and SLE162, some assessment items will be due after intensive courses but do not require a presence on campus.*

Students who have completed two trimesters of full-time study outside Australia with a GPA of 2.6 out of 4 (or equivalent) will be considered for entry.

You may also be eligible for entry following completion of secondary studies in your home country. Units of study that have prerequisites will only be approved where appropriate previous studies have been successfully completed.

For up to date Academic Entry Requirements, see <http://theguide.deakin.edu.au>.

If English is not your first language or the language of instruction at your home institution, you must provide documentary evidence. Students should check the website for English language requirements, at www.deakin.edu.au/future-students/international/apply-entry/english-req.php.

AFTER YOU APPLY

Acceptance procedures

As soon as a decision is made on your eligibility, you will be informed of the outcome.

- If you are successful, you will receive a Letter of Offer stating the units of study you have approval to enrol in, tuition fee and Overseas Student Health Cover information.
- The Letter of Offer may be conditional or unconditional. If you receive a conditional offer, you must fulfil the conditions outlined in the Letter of Offer (such as undertaking an English language course or showing original documents). You will be made an unconditional offer once you have met all the admission requirements.
- You will also receive information outlining the process of accepting an offer and the steps you need to take before coming to Australia. You should accept your offer by paying fees as soon as possible, as places in some courses are limited.
- Your Letter of Offer will contain details about accessing pre-departure information including the forms to use to accept your offer, how to pay your fees, accommodation information and requesting arrival services.

Conditions of entry into Australia

To be granted a student visa, you are required to:

- have an electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCOE) from Deakin University
- show evidence of sufficient financial capacity to cover all expenses during the entire stay in Australia, including living costs and return airfares
- be genuinely seeking temporary entry for study purposes only and agree to leave Australia when the course is completed
- undergo a medical examination with a medical practitioner approved by the Australian Diplomatic Mission in your country (if required).

Please note that entry into Australia on a student visa is only permitted for applicants undertaking full-time on-campus study.

For more information about visas, go to www.immi.gov.au/students.

Health Insurance (OSHC)

The Australian Government requires all international students (and any dependants accompanying them) to have Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC). The health cover provides medical and hospital care within Australia from the date of your arrival until the end of your studies in Australia. It is your responsibility to ensure your OSHC is valid and kept up-to-date while you hold a student visa. Your Letter of Offer will detail the OSHC fees you are required to pay.

Protection of your rights as an overseas student

As an overseas student, you must study with an education provider and in a course that can be found on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS).

CRICOS registration guarantees that the course and the education provider at which you study meet the high standards necessary for overseas students. As a CRICOS-registered education provider, Deakin ensures that all its courses comply with those standards as set out in the ESOS legislative framework. In addition, as an overseas student, you have certain rights that are protected under the ESOS framework, as well as certain obligations that you have to adhere to while studying in Australia. For more information, visit www.deakin.edu.au/international or go to www.dest.gov.au/esos.

Refund policy

Fees for international students apply to persons living in Australia with temporary residence status (provided that there is no limitation on study), and to persons living abroad who are not Australian citizens and do not have permanent residency in Australia. This policy complies with the Australian Vice-Chancellors' Committee's guidelines on fees for international students.

This policy and its related schedule apply to all international on-campus students, irrespective of who pays the fees.

New international students should visit our website for the most up to date refund information www.deakin.edu.au/international. For information on DUELI's fee refund policy, including conditions, methods of refund, transfer fees and attendance requirements, please see www.deakin.edu.au/future-students/international/dueli/fees.
