

DLS Reported Research August 2017

Recent Publications

A1: Monograph

Nil.

B1: Book Chapters

Nil.

C1: Articles

Pieter Badenhorst

"The nature of New Order Prospecting Rights and Mining Right: A can of worms?" 2017 (2) South African Law Journal 361-382.

(With C Young) "The notion of Constitutional Property in South Africa" 2017 (1) Stellenbosch law Review 26-46.

(With N Olivier and C Williams) "Competing preferent community prospecting rights: A Nonchalant Custodian?" Potchefstroom Electronic Law Journal 2017(20 1-34) DOI: <http://dx.doi.org/10.17159/1727-3781/2017/v20n0a1213> 1-34.

"South African Constitutional Property Clause: Arbitrary deprivation of money – An analysis of the Constitutional Court's application in Chevron SA (Pty) Ltd v Wilson [2015] ZACC 15" (22) 2016 Canterbury Law Review 103-119.

Secured Research Grants and Funding

Nil.

Other Research Activities

Conference Presentations

Sonia Allan

Title: Report on the Review of the Assisted Reproductive Treatment Act 1988 (SA)
Conference: Annual Obstetric Malpractice Conference held 8-9 August (Melbourne, Australia).

Media Coverage

Akshaya Kamalnath

The Conversation: 'A memo to Google – firing employees with conservative views is anti-diversity' (11 August 2017)

<https://theconversation.com/a-memo-to-google-firing-employees-with-conservative-views-is-anti-diversity-82318>

Research Invitations, Panels, Meetings and Submissions

Samantha Hepburn's submission to a parliamentary inquiry concerning governance and operation of the Northern Australia Infrastructure Facility (NAIF) was published by the Senate Economics References Committee.

Invited as one of four panellists spoke at the RMIT's panel: Panel: Climate Change and the Law on 29 August 2017. The topic of her presentation: "Reconceiving existing legal mechanisms and approaches when dealing with Climate Change with reference to the conclusions of the Full Federal Court in the Adani decision handed down last week"

Vicki Huang submitted her PhD thesis at Melbourne Law School on 18 August 2017 titled: "Empirical Analysis of Judicial Reasoning — All Trade Mark Infringement Cases Under s 120 of the Trade Marks Act 1995 (Cth)."

Marilyn McMahon (with Dr Ann Wardrop and Dr David Wishart of La Trobe University) made a submission to the Banking, Insurance and Capital Markets Unit of the Treasury on the Banking Executive Accountability Regime Consultation Paper.

Announcements

Paul McGorrery won the Deakin University final of the Three Minute Thesis (3MT) competition with his presentation 'Prosecuting Psychological Harms'. Paul will represent the University at the Asia-Pacific 3MT competition in September. Paul's supervisors are Dr Marilyn McMahon and Associate Professor Kelley Burton (University of Central Queensland).

Upcoming Research Activities

7 September 2017

The 2017 Brookes Oration on Trust, Reputation and Consumer Empowerment will be delivered by the Honourable Anna Bligh AC, Chief Executive of the Australian Bankers' Association, former Premier of Queensland and one of Australia's most recognisable female leaders. Registration information can be found at: <https://engage.deakin.edu.au/2017BrookesOration?erid=6323911&trid=71bcad82-ee35-4557-91ee-47213b245cec&efndnum=0000046506416>

18 October 2017 (Waterfront Campus) / 25 October 2017 (Burwood Campus)

Media Training for Law School Academics: An in-house training for academic staff will run for 90 minutes (10am – 11.30am) and provide an outline of the media unit and the work it does, the ingredients needed for a great news story and how to prepare for and handle media interviews. The session is tailored for us in law and includes a combination of presentation and hands-on training. Morning tea will be provided with this training. A calendar invitation will be sent to staff.