DISABILITY AT DEAKIN: A MATTER OF CHOICE

SUSAN BALANDIN
CHAIR IN DISABILITY AND INCLUSION
CHOICE: UNIVERSITIES AND COMMUNITIES WORKING TOGETHER

Part of the community, not an ivory tower
Responsive to needs
Developing the evidence base
Opportunities for innovation
Prioritising the end user
ASPIRATION:

People with disability (students, staff and community members) want to engage with Deakin University and know they will be included and supported.
ACCESS AND EXPERIENCE

People with disability are included and supported, and can engage on equal terms during their experience at Deakin University.
ACHIEVEMENT

People with disability can realise their full potential in their study, employment or other engagement with Deakin University.
COMMUNITY LINKS AND CHOICE

Education

Research

Innovation and development

Health and well being of all stakeholders