Living in Melbourne

Melbourne

The city of Melbourne has a population of around four million. It is exciting, safe, cosmopolitan and culturally rich. One in four people in Melbourne was born overseas. There are more than one hundred ethnic groups, making Melbourne a very multicultural city to live in. We have great public transport, a large number of parks, beaches, public spaces, a thriving arts culture, and a unique blend of historical and modern architecture.

Weather and clothing

The weather in Melbourne is pleasant and mild with four distinct seasons: summer, autumn, winter and spring. Melbourne generally does not experience severe extremes of heat, humidity or cold; however, the weather can be very changeable and hard to predict. It is a good idea to wear layers of clothing and to carry a small umbrella or a waterproof jacket.

Water restrictions

Due to ongoing dry weather, water restrictions are sometimes introduced in Melbourne to help save our diminishing water resources.

Travelling to DUELI

Melbourne is a large city, with few people living in its centre. Many Melburnians travel up to sixty minutes to go to work or school. DUELI is located on the Melbourne Burwood Campus. For maps, please visit deakin.edu.au/locations. For information about travelling in Melbourne, please visit www.ptv.vic.gov.au.

Myki card

Tickets for public transport are called 'myki'. You can buy a myki card from www.ptv.vic.gov.au, train stations, some news agencies and the Deakin Burwood bookshop. You must touch on with your myki when you travel. If you do not have a valid myki while travelling, you may be fined up to $500. Ticket inspectors often check tickets while you are on public transport, in validated ticket areas of train stations, and at tram stops. Always have a valid myki.

Tourist information

For tourist information on Melbourne and Victoria go to the Victoria Visitor Information at Federation Square, near the Flinders Street Station and see www.visitvictoria.com.
