

▶ Library Learning and Teaching Services

Deakin Library plays an essential role in supporting the university’s learning and teaching activities and our institution as a learning organisation. We nurture a community of lifelong learners and active and informed global citizens.

We deliver library services and programs that support learning in diverse ways. Our services, programs, and specialised knowledges enable the educational aspirations of our students, academics, professional staff and communities.

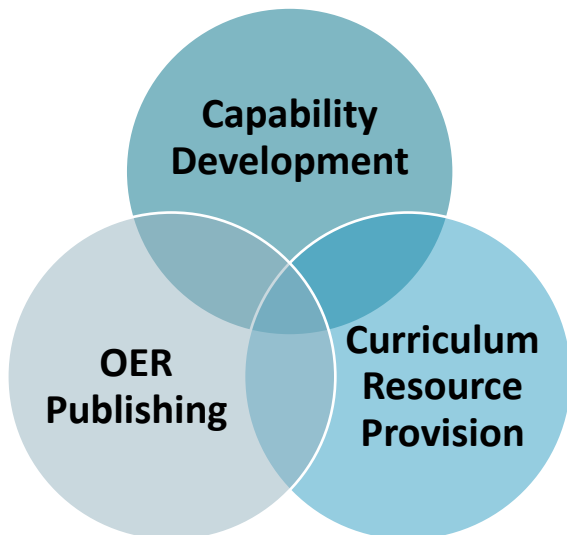

Vision

To be a valued partner and essential resource at the intersection of information science and Deakin’s learning ecosystem through the application of library-specific expertise.

Mission

To deliver impactful library services that support the educational objectives and lifelong learning journeys of our staff, students and communities.
