Acknowledgement of Country

Deakin University acknowledges the Traditional Custodians of all the unceded lands, skies and waterways on which Deakin students, staff and communities come together. As we learn and teach through virtually and physically constructed places across time, we pay our deep respect to the Ancestors and Elders of Wadawurrung Country, Eastern Maar Country and Wurundjeri Country, where our physical campuses are located. We also acknowledge the many First Nations from where students join us and make vital contributions to our learning communities.

Proven employability

By the time she was finishing her second year at Deakin University, Hoa had already secured an entry-level role in her field at a multinational company specialising in energy management and digital automation.

For the Bachelor of Communication alumni from Vietnam, it was a clear sign that her career was taking shape, thanks to the support of DeakinTALENT, Deakin's comprehensive career and employment service.

'Because Deakin has a dedicated career support program called DeakinTALENT, I was able to build up my employability and my network to launch my career,' Hoa says.

DeakinTALENT works with students from their first year through to graduation and beyond, offering lifelong access to tailored programs, internship and work experience opportunities via dedicated job boards, events and one-on-one career consultations. For international students, the service also provides dedicated support to help them understand the Australian employment market, which can differ significantly from their home countries.

Hoa's proactive approach paid off quickly. She began as a Career Ambassador through DeakinTALENT, progressed to a Team Leader position, and later secured the internship that set her up for success.

For Hoa, DeakinTALENT's resources opened the door to opportunity through its jobs and internships platform, workshops and events. 'Take advantage of the incredible events, workshops and resources that Deakin University offers,' she says. 'All of that will assist greatly in landing your dream job after graduation.'

Entry requirements

► Academic admission requirements – Undergraduate

Each undergraduate degree at Deakin has its own minimum academic admission requirements, such as your high school results. The specific entry requirements for your country and your Deakin degree are listed at deakin.edu.au/int-entry. Be sure to check this information carefully and speak with Deakin or your agent if you have any questions.

Pathways

If you do not meet the academic admission requirements for a Deakin degree, there may still be a pathway available for you to study at our university. See page 32–33 of this guide to learn more about alternative pathways to Deakin.

Supporting information

Some degrees at Deakin may require additional documentation prior to admission, such as a portfolio of work, a current police check from your country, your resume or a personal statement.

A personal statement gives you the chance to show us who you are. This can include your qualifications and background, and why you want to attend Deakin.

► Visas

International students who want to study in Australia require a visa. This could be a student visa. It is important that you know the type of visa you are granted so that you can meet the requirements of that visa.

You can learn more about student visas and other important visa information at the Australian Government's Department of Home Affairs website.

► English language requirements

To enrol in a Deakin degree, you will need to be able to read, speak, write and listen in English at a certain level. Students must provide evidence of at least one of the following:

- Completed university (tertiary) or high school (secondary) studies delivered and assessed in English at the awarding institution, with evidence confirming English as the medium of instruction.

Many degrees allow you to choose a 'specialisation' – the area of study from which you choose the majority of your units. Studies are completed mainly through coursework, with a thesis or major project completed in the last part of the degree.

Admission requirements

Applicants are required to have completed at least a bachelor degree, or comparable, of an acceptable standard from an approved university or other educational institution. Some degrees may have additional entry requirements, which you can find on the Deakin website.

Masters degrees by coursework that include a research stream may provide a possible pathway to PhD candidature.

PRE-UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY UNDERGRADUATE

Lam's pathway to Deakin

At 16, Lam from Vietnam knew he wanted to study artificial intelligence but was not quite ready for degree-level study. He chose Deakin College to build skills and independence. Deakin College offers alternative pathways to university, with smaller classes helping students thrive. Their Foundation program, similar to Australian Year 12, was the perfect pathway for Lam to adapt to new study environments as well as experience the culture.

As an under-18 international student, Lam had a guardian who helped him confidently settle in. 'They are very welcoming and supportive when it comes to guiding new students in the program. They were willing to assist with any difficulties I encountered,' Lam said of his teachers.

More than 22,000 students have graduated from Deakin College. Could this be the start of your Deakin journey?

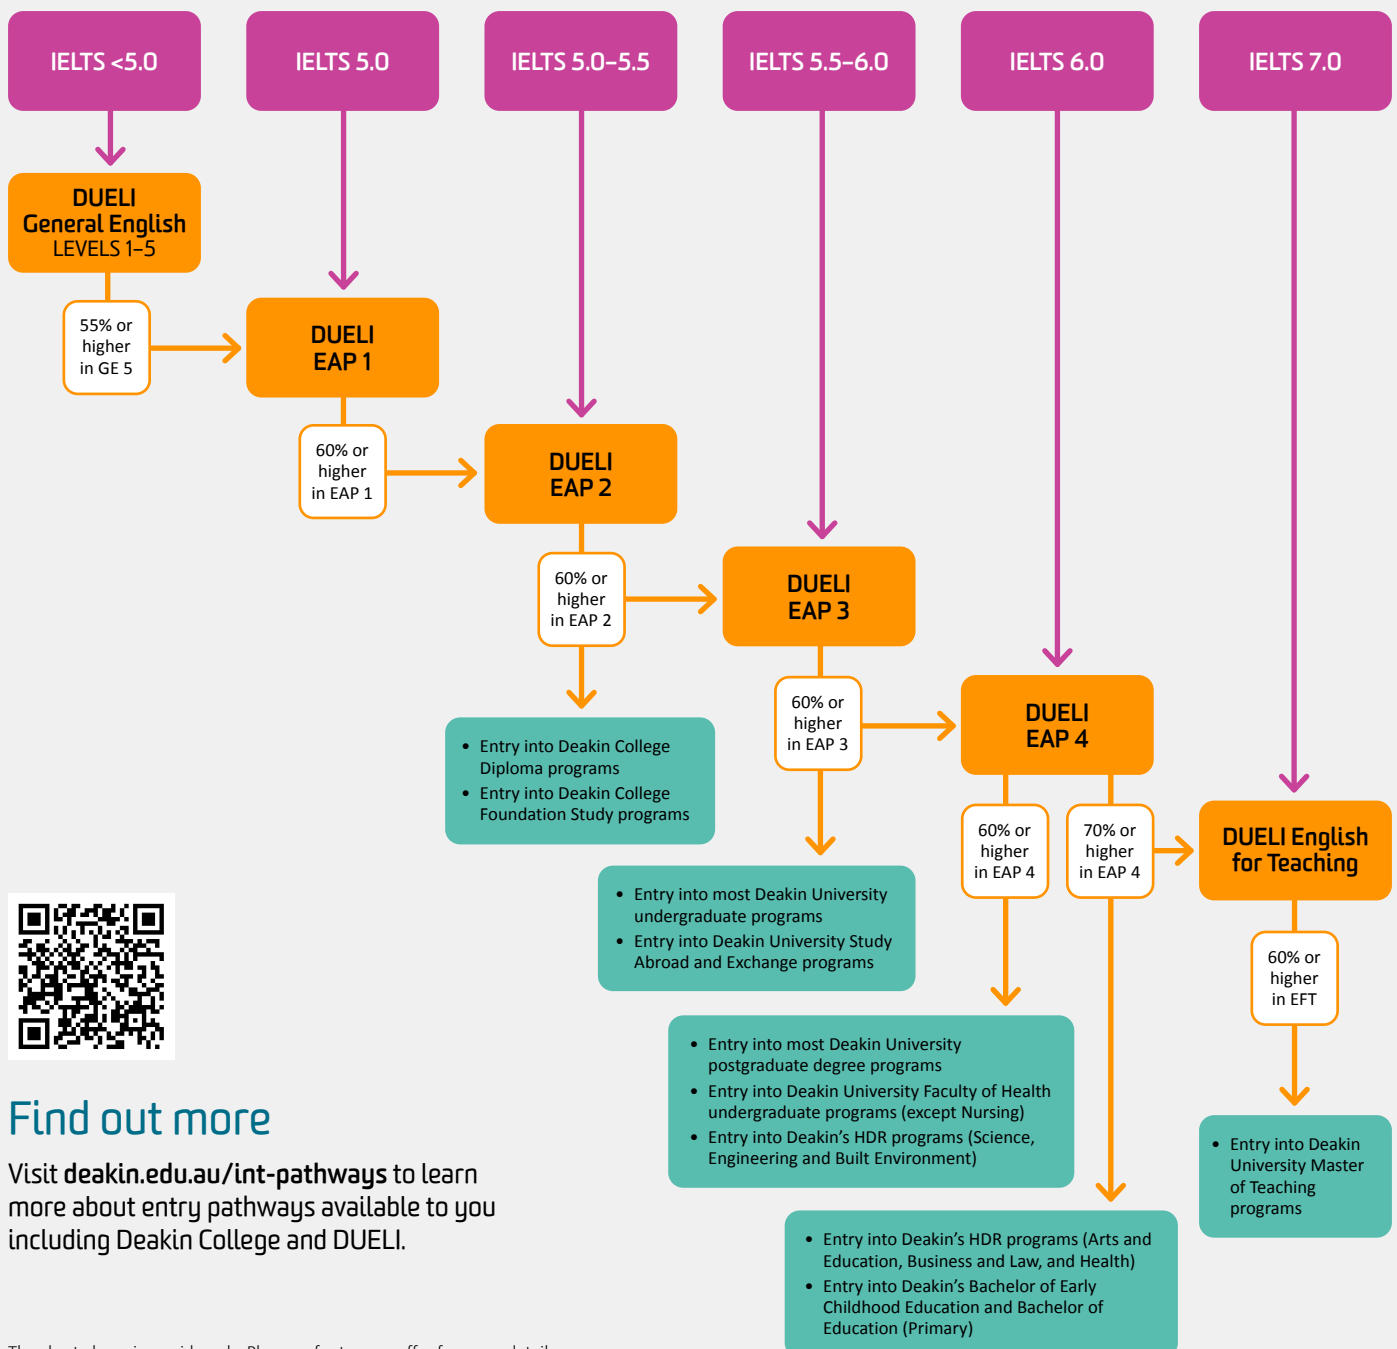

'DUELI really helped me improve my English and feel confident in my studies. The lessons strengthened my academic English and prepared me well for studying at Deakin. The supportive teachers and welcoming community made my transition to university and life in Australia much smoother and more enjoyable.'

'What I like most about living and studying in Australia, especially in Melbourne, is how genuinely friendly and welcoming people are. No matter where you are, there is always someone willing to help, whether it is giving directions, recommending a café or simply checking in. That sense of openness and community has made studying here feel both exciting and reassuring.'
