

How to apply – Deakin College to Deakin University

Domestic student information

As a Deakin College student, you're on the pathway to a bachelor's degree at Deakin University, the #1 Victorian university for course satisfaction.¹ While studying your diploma, you can apply for your preferred Deakin University course and prepare for a seamless transition to the next stage of your studies.

FAQs

► I'm an international student

Speak to Deakin College about your packaged offer.

► I haven't told Deakin University about the bachelor degree I want to study yet

Just fill out the form at deakin.edu.au/deakin-college-transfer so you can tell Deakin University about your preference.

► I've changed my mind about my bachelor degree

Fill out the form at deakin.edu.au/deakin-college-transfer and we can adjust your course for you.

Deakin University accepts change of preferred courses until one day after you get your results from Deakin College.

► I have a VTAC packaged offer

If you applied for both your diploma and bachelor degree via VTAC and have received a conditional offer for your bachelor degree from Deakin University's Admissions Team you don't need to fill in the form.

You can use the form at deakin.edu.au/deakin-college-transfer to change your course preference. We would recommend speaking to an adviser at Deakin College as this may affect the amount of RPL you are eligible for.

► My bachelor degree does not appear on the form

This form shows only the pathway courses available from Deakin College to Deakin University. For any course that is not a pathway you need to:

- Apply for the next best course to your ultimate course
- Investigate course transferring after at least 4 credit points at Deakin University using your Deakin University WAM

deakin.edu.au/course-transfer

► When will I be made an offer?

You should get a conditional offer from Deakin University's Admissions and RPL area soon after you apply. This condition will set out when you will need to finish your studies at Deakin College by and your required WAM for entry to Deakin University.

► How are courses at Deakin University selected?

When you apply to Deakin University from Deakin College it is selected purely on your Weighted Average Mark (WAM), including any fails you may have on your record. Deakin University cannot vary your WAM or the desired WAM from that advertised.

► I will not meet the condition of my offer

If you know you will not meet the WAM then you have a few options:

- Wait until you get your confirmed marks and change your preferred course using the form at deakin.edu.au/deakin-college-transfer.
- Select another course or campus now at deakin.edu.au/deakin-college-transfer.
- Have a chat to an adviser at Deakin College about other options. There are advisers at each Deakin College office. But get in early if you think this may happen as they book up!
- Deakin University are able to provide some support services. See deakin.edu.au/life-at-deakin/support-services.

► When will I enrol?

Following release of your results by Deakin College, Deakin University will check you have met conditions of entry, including meeting the required WAM for your chosen course. If you meet all entry requirements, you will receive your Letter of Offer for study within 12 days. At this time you will also receive your details on Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and details on how to enrol to Deakin University.

► How do I know what to enrol in?

Deakin University has course maps that you can start now. deakin.edu.au/course-maps

You can get support from our Student Central offices to help you fill these out. deakin.edu.au/student-central
